NO. 248—SIXTY-FIRST YEAR VICTORIA, BRITISH COLUMBIA, FRIDAY, OCTOBER 3, 1919. TWENTY PAGES

SEVERAL MEMBERS DESIRE TO RECALL DAYS OF PATRONAGE

Advocate Return to Old System Whereunder Civil Servants Were Nominated by Party Representatives—Reclassification Bill Is Finally Read Second Time in House.

MEIGHEN TELEGRAM RESOLUTION IS DEFEATED BY 16 MAJORITY

OTTAWA, Oct. 3.—Outspoken expressions of opinion regarding the old system of party patronage in preference to the administration of the Civil Service Act by the Civil Service Commission were the features of the second reading of Hon. A. K. Maclean's bill to ratify the new civil service classification.

This classification was tabled in Parliament toward the end of the regular session, and deals with both the inside and the outside service. It has since been subjected to considerable revision. Despite the many objections voiced in the House to the bill, it was given second reading and referred to a special committee.

The arguments of members opposed to the present civil service system were mainly to the effect that it is wrong both in theory and in practice; that the most efficient officials in the Government service were named under the old system, because members made their recommendations with a sense of responsibility, and that better results would follow a return to the practices that prevailed before the passage of the Civil Service Act in 1908. Members who disapproved of the existing system included Hon. T. W. Crothers, ex-Minister of Labor; Dr. Edwards, H. C. Hocken and Thomas Foster, East York, while supporters of the abolition of political patronage included Dr. Charles Sheard, Dr. Michael Steele, R. L. Richardson and H. M. Mowat.

At a late hour the debate on Mr. McKenzie's motion asking for the appointment of a commission to go into the matter of the Meighen code telegram and the taking of the soldiers' vote at the last general election was resumed.

Motion Rejected

At 2 o'clock this morning, the Commons, on a division of 72 to 56, a Government majority of 33, rejected Mr. D. D. McKenzie's motion demanding the appointment of a parliamentary committee to investigate in the manner of taking of the soldiers' vote at the last general election, as well as the sending of a code telegram under the signature of Hon. Arthur Meighen to Sir Robert Borden, in regard to the apportioning of one thousand soldiers' votes in Manitoba. The division, which was a straight party affair, was preceded by much excitement when Mr. McKenzie produced the original telegram, and Mr. Meighen after looking it over, declared that it was not in his hand writing, and that he had not written it or initialed it.

Considerable crossfire and confusion followed. Mr. McKenzie, who was exercising his privilege as the mover of the motion, to close the debate, declined to give the floor to Mr. Meighen, who desired to make a statement. The Minister, during the course of the flurry, declared the telegram as produced to be a forgery.

After the discussion Hon. C. J. Doherty claimed that the telegram produced had become the property of the House. He maintained that the document, so far as it could be examined, was not what Mr. McKenzie claimed it to be insofar as the signature of Mr. Meighen or the address of Sir Robert Borden was concerned.

Mr. McKenzie replied that the document was the photograph of the original and that he had not tabled it.

After some discussion, the speaker upheld Mr. McKenzie's contention.

INDIANS DO HONOR TO PRINCE OF WALES

LETHBRIDGE, Alta., Oct. 2.—The Indians of the Lethbridge district today invested the Prince of Wales with the title of "Red Crow," the chief of the tribe bestowing on him, with tremendous formality, the title of "Chief Many Smiles." The order of the "Red Crow" is the highest honor which the Indians can bestow, and the ceremonies were brilliant, reviving ancient glories of the Redskins.

The pow-wow lasted all afternoon, and the Prince gave up a big slice of his time in Lethbridge to the ceremonies.

Lethbridge entertained the Prince of Wales today and the town came out bravely to welcome him. Many thousands of people from the city and district had assembled in the town gardens when the Prince mounted the roof of the Board of Trade Building and received the Mayor's address of welcome. School children having sung "O Canada," the Prince addressed them briefly, telling them that he had asked that another holiday be given them to celebrate the event.

Handley Page Airplane

PARRSBORO, N.S., Oct. 2.—The Handley Page bomber Atlantic made a successful trial flight this evening. The big plane took the air shortly after 6 o'clock and circled the town. She made a splendid landing. Vice-Admiral Mark Kerr, in command of the plane, and party said that everything was satisfactory and that he planned to "hop off" from Parrsboro on Sunday morning for New York.

MARSHAL APPROVED TERMS OF ARMISTICE

PARIS, Oct. 2.—During yesterday's session of the Chamber of Deputies, M. Ybarnegaray asked if Marshal Foch had approved of the date and conditions of the armistice. The Petit Parisien this morning publishes the text of a letter through which the Marshal made known his preparations, and declared that these conditions were examined in the presence of the Commander-in-Chief at Versailles on November 1 and November 4 last. The newspaper says the Marshal made no objections to the conditions of the armistice and that the conditions which were presented to Mathias Erzberger, chairman of the German armistice commission, were the very ones he proposed.

Prosecutions Possible

WINNIPEG, Oct. 2.—Prosecution by the Attorney-General's Department of retailers over-charging on sugar probably will be commenced very soon, according to an announcement made tonight. Mr. W. R. Cottingham, deputy assistant attorney-general, stated that a letter warning retailers against infringements of the sugar orders is being sent to the Retail Merchants' Association. Any violations will be immediately taken up by the department.

SENATE REJECTS 36 AMENDMENTS

Proposals Tacked on to Treaty by Foreign Relations Committee Are Voted Down—Nine to Be Disposed Of.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2.—At last reaching the stage of action in its consideration of the peace treaty, the Senate swept aside in quick succession today thirty-six of the forty-five amendments which had been written in the document by the foreign relations committee.

The smallest majority recorded against any of the committee proposals was 15, and the largest was 28. All of the amendments considered had been introduced by Senator Fall, Republican, New Mexico, and were designed to curtail American participation in European settlements resulting from the war.

Of the nine amendments yet to be acted on, six relate to the Shantung section, two propose to equalize voting power in the League of Nations, and one would limit American representation on the reparations commission. In the absence of a definite agreement for disposition of these proposals, Senate leaders thought tonight that the debate might run on for several days before another roll call is taken.

Throughout the day's voting the Democrats presented a solid front against the amendments except for Senator Gore, of Oklahama, and Thomas, of Colorado. Seventeen Republicans on the other hand lined up against the first committee proposal to be considered, and most of them stood with the Democrats on all succeeding roll calls. Many of them announced they were for reservations which they believed would cover the same ground without endangering the treaty.

At adjournment the treaty advocates declared themselves elated with the day's work, and the opposition leaders also were claiming a victory on the showing made for their amendments.

ENJOY PROFITS -- OF 50 PER CENT

Evidence of Winnipeg Dealer Given at Board of Commerce Inquiry Shows Greater Gain on Some Lines.

GOVERNMENT WILL CONTROL PRICES

Prediction Is Made by Mr. Whitla, Counsel, While Cross-Examining — Judge Robson to Come West.

WINNIPEG, Oct. 2.—According to evidence submitted by Mr. C. F. Rannard, president of the Rannard Shoe Company, at today's sitting of the Board of Commerce, a gross profit amounting to almost 50 per cent is realized on every pair of highest priced Canadian and American men's and women's shoes sold by his company. Of the two, Canadian manufactured shoes bring in slightly better returns, there being no duty to pay, although the manufacturers' price was shown to be higher.

That the cost of shoes to the public would be under government control next year, was intimated by Mr. Harry Whitla, K.C., the cross-examining attorney, when he said:

"Never mind worrying about what shoes will cost next year; we will have something to say about that, Mr. Rannard. It is the cost price and selling price of shoes now that we want."

Mr. Rannard, on the stand, admitted when cross-questioned, that shoemen put their prices up on stock already in the store when they became cognizant of an advance which was threatened in manufacturers' prices.

The witness justified this practice to the commission on the ground that the retailer had to make the shift to get more capital with which to swing the next purchase at the larger outlay.

Of chief interest to women was a classy black buckle high shoe costing $19. This shoe is an American product, and laid down in Winnipeg costs the Rannard Co. $11.74.

For the men a Canadian shoe costing the consumer $15 was of chief interest. The sale price of this shoe showed a gross profit of 66 2-3 per cent.

Prior to the adjournment of the board Mr. Whitla made the announcement that the inquiry into boots and clothing would be laid over for another week, pending the arrival of Judge H. A. Robson from the East. He stated that Judge Robson desired to be present himself at the local inquiry into these two staples.

REGINA GREETS GENERAL CURRIE

Reception at Saskatchewan Capital Is Hearty—Sir Arthur to Be at Vancouver and New Westminster Tomorrow

REGINA, Oct. 2.—General Sir Arthur Currie was given a great reception when he passed through here today. Sir Richard Lake, Lieutenant-Governor; Sir Percy Lake, his brother; Premier Martin, Brig-Gen. Alex. Ross, C.M.G., D.S.O.; Brig.-Gen. J. F. Lembury, C.M.G., C.B.; Mayor Black and more than 200 officers and other ranks, were at the station to greet him. Mrs. Emsbury and Mrs. Ross met Lady Currie. Practically all of his time was spent talking to N.C.O.'s and men whom he met here or in France. General Currie announced that he would remain off a full day in Regina on his return from the Coast.

NEW WESTMINSTER, Oct. 2.—It is expected that General Sir Arthur Currie will reach New Westminster at 2:45 o'clock on Saturday afternoon. He has agreed to face-off the ball at the lacrosse match at 3:30 o'clock.

VANCOUVER, Oct. 2.—What is expected to be one of the most largely attended luncheons ever held under the auspices of the Vancouver Canadian Club will take place at the Hotel Vancouver on Saturday at 12:25 o'clock, when General Sir Arthur Currie, the commander of the Canadians in France, will speak. The doors will open at 12:10, and the sale of tickets will close at 10 o'clock on Saturday morning, unless sold out before that time.

VISCOUNT COWDRAY TO SELL VERNON LAND

WINNIPEG, Oct. 2. — Viscount Cowdray intends to dispose of his estate of 13,000 acres at Vernon, B.C. Mr. M. E. Lundy, his personal representative, is in Winnipeg on the way to the Coast to inspect the estate with this end in view. There are 1,000 acres of fruit-producing land in the total. Mr. Lundy has authority to sell to Canadian interests only.

It was on Viscount Cowdray's Derbyshire estate in England that the discoveries of oil were recently made, and His Lordship offered the rights to the British Government. He is intending, as well, to invest his funds with the Government for more general public benefit.

EFFORT TO SETTLE RAILROAD TROUBLE FAILS OF SUCCESS

Endeavors of Transport Workers to Bring About Resumption of Negotiations Between Government and Railwaymen Have So Far Had Disappointing Results

MEDIATION EFFORTS TO CONTINUE TODAY

Situation Is Still Considered Extremely Grave—Premier Issues Message Stating Government's Position—Sir Eric Geddes Meets With Hostile Reception on Way to Conference

LONDON, Oct. 2.—Though it would be premature to abandon hope of a settlement of the railway strike, the situation tonight has disappointed the expectations of some arrangement resulting from the numerous conferences yesterday and today between the labor representatives and the government, and the position is again grave. Mr. James Henry Thomas, general secretary of the National Union of Railwaymen, announced that the efforts to reopen the negotiations had collapsed, owing to government refusal to go beyond its previous offer. Other unions than the railwaymen were continuing their efforts at mediation, and, while the strike continued, the railwaymen would do nothing to hinder mediation.

After a conference of the executives of the railwaymen and transport workers, Mr. Thomas issued a statement in which he said:

"Rumors of a settlement are incorrect. The negotiations have broken down, inasmuch as the government offer does not differ from that of Friday last."

The Transport Workers' Federation will hold another meeting tomorrow, indicating that they are still reluctant to call a strike. The government is increasing its organization to insure service and, under emergency powers, has closed Regent's Park to the public and is using the park as a clearing centre for market produce, frozen meat and fish, in the same way that Hyde Park is being used for the distribution of milk.

Mediation Failure

Today's failure to reach a settlement cannot be properly described as a breakdown of negotiations, because there have been no actual negotiations so far as the Government is concerned. It is rather a failure of efforts at mediation between the National Union of Railwaymen and the Government. It is learned that Premier Lloyd George was in the conference room at Downing Street on Wednesday night for only a very few minutes—at the beginning and end of the conference. The remainder of the time was occupied in talk among the delegates themselves.

Similarly today, there have been only short interviews with the Premier, who, however, discussed the situation at length with the Transport Workers' deputation alone. These discussions have been conducted on a friendly basis, the Premier inviting his guests to tea.

Robert Williams, general secretary of the Transport Workers' Union, announced tonight that he would seek another conference with the Premier tomorrow, and there will be a meeting of the executives of the various unions involved to consider a future course of action.

Both the Prime Minister and Secretary Thomas issued statements which were shown on every motion picture screen tonight, setting forth briefly the respective attitudes of the Government and the union.

The Premier declared that the Government was not engaged in fighting trades unions, but to prevent an attack against the life of the community. Secretary Thomas declared that the railwaymen were not fighting the community, but against a conspiracy to lower wages.

Government's Message

Every motion picture screen tonight exhibited the following message from Prime Minister Lloyd George:

"The Government is not fighting trades unions, which are recognized as a factor in the industrial life of the country. The Government is fighting to prevent extremists of any industrial body from gaining their ends by attacking the life of the community and so bringing untold misery upon thousands of innocent persons."

Sir Eric Geddes met with a very hostile reception when proceeding from the Ministry of Transport to the conference in Downing Street this afternoon. Great crowds of strikers hissed him the whole length of Whitehall. The police cleared a passage for the Minister through the crowds.

Wages Withheld

Notices were posted at important railroad centres yesterday, according to The Mail, stating that the Government has ordered that wages due strikers for their last week's work will not be paid because the men quit their posts without notice.

The authorities have decided that Parliament will not be called together in connection with the industrial situation. The Government has determined to abide by the original date of meeting, October 22.

Situation in Ireland

DUBLIN, Oct. 2.—The National Executive of the Irish Labor Party and the Trades Unions Congress will hold a mass meeting on Sunday in support of the striking railwaymen of England, Scotland and Wales. The coal shortage is making Ireland feel the effects of the strike acutely. Beginning tonight, the Dublin tram cars will cease running at 8:30 p.m., each evening. This will be a severe blow to all the amusement places. The mail services also are disorganized.

No food restrictions have yet been enforced, but the public has been warned to economize strictly in the use of coal.

RUSSIAN ARMY MAKES ADVANCE

HELSINGFORS, Oct. 2.—The Northwestern Russian army is engaged in a general offensive movement in the direction of Pskov (near the Esthonian frontier in the region southwest of Petrograd).

Despite the stubborn resistance of the Bolsheviki, eleven villages have been captured. The offensive is continuing.

FIRE BOSS KILLED IN MINE AT NANAIMO

NANAIMO, Oct. 2.—Robert Seggie, a fire boss employed by the Western Fuel Co., was instantly killed at 8:15 o'clock tonight by a fall of rock in the north side of No. 1 mine.

Seggie was a native of Ayrshire, Scotland, and was thirty-eight years of age. His father, three brothers and a sister survive him in Nanaimo, where he had resided for the past 12 years.

PRESIDENT TAKES TURN FOR WORSE

Dr. Grayson's Latest Bulletin Describes Him as "Very Sick Man" — Philadelphia Doctor in Consultation.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2.—President Wilson is a "very sick man," and "his condition is less favorable today, and he has remained in bed throughout the day.

"After consultation with Dr. F. X. Dercum, of Philadelphia, and Doctors Sterling, Ruffin and E. R. Stitt, of Washington, who all agreed as to his condition, it was determined that absolute rest is essential for some time."

Despite a fairly good night's rest, President Wilson was not so well this morning, and Rear-Admiral Grayson called in consultation Dr. F. X. Dercum, a neurologist of Philadelphia.

The calling in of the nerve specialist was decided upon by Dr. Grayson yesterday, and Dr. Dercum arrived at the White House today.

Colonel Peck Comes West

PRINCE RUPERT, B.C., Oct. 2.—Word has been received here that Col. Peck, V.C., left Ottawa today en route to Vancouver, owing to the serious illness of his mother.

Belgian Royal Party Welcomed to States

Arrival at New York Is Signal for Hearty Demonstration—Country's Hospitality Extended by Vice-President—King Albert Issues Address Expressing Gratitude

NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—The King and Queen of the Belgians, with Prince Leopold, heir-apparent to the throne, were the guests of the United States in New York tonight.

Their first hours on American soil were spent quietly at their hotel resting after their voyage, and celebrating their nineteenth wedding anniversary. By their express wish, the welcome to New York will not begin until noon tomorrow. At that hour will start an arduous round of receptions and sight-seeing, which eventually will take them to San Francisco and back to Washington, where they will be guests at the White House. The Belgian royalties were given the official freedom of the United States by Vice-President Marshall when they stepped ashore from the transport George Washington on the Government pier at Hoboken at noon today.

"I welcome you to this Republic as King of the bravest people since time began," Mr. Marshall said, "but more as a man whose conduct will be a mighty force in steadying the world to law and order, to friendship, faith and freedom."

Welcoming royalty to America's shores is a novelty even to the veteran attaches of the State Department, which arranged their reception, but there was no slip in the arrangements and no unseemly outbreaks of democratic exuberance, although there was no mistaking the warmth of the affection felt for the gallant Albert and his consort.

The royal party received a noisy welcome to New York when aroused at dawn by the firing of salutes as the transport George Washington steamed past the outer harbor fortifications.

The George Washington arrived off the Fire Island lightship at 5 o'clock yesterday. A flotilla of 12 destroyers escorted the vessel up the bay to her pier at Hoboken. As the ship came up the harbor salutes of 21 guns were fired from the coast fortifications. In response, the George Washington broke out at her masthead the flag of the Belgian royal family and the national banner.

It was arranged for King Albert to leave the vessel and proceed to the reception room between lines of American soldiers and along a hall decorated with the flags of Belgium, the United States and the other Allies in the war. Under the canopy of flags in the reception room the programme called for the formal address of welcome by the vice-president of the United States, and King Albert's reply to the greeting of the American nation.

Upon his arrival King Albert issued the following message to the American people:

"At the moment of setting foot on American soil, the King of the Belgians desires to express to the people of the United States the great pleasure with which the Queen and himself come to its shores at the invitation of President Wilson.

"The King brings to this nation of friends the testimony of the profound sentiment and gratitude of his countrymen for the powerful aid, moral and material, which America gave them during the course of the war. The name of the Commission for the Relief of Belgium will live eternally in the memory of the Belgians.

"The King rejoices at the prospect of visiting the cities whose hearts fought with those of Belgium and whose continual sacrifices know no measure. He especially will be glad to meet the eminent citizens who, animated by the highest thoughts, placed themselves at the head of organizations for relieving the sufferings of the war.

"The American people, their splendid army and their courageous navy, powerfully served a great ideal."

MR. GARY HOLDS TO RESOLUTION

Refuses to Entertain Idea of Negotiation or Compromise —Strike Situation at Pittsburg Remains Unchanged.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2.—Standing squarely on his assertion that the issue in the pending strike throughout the steel industry is the open shop, Judge Elbert Gary, chairman of the board of the U. S. Steel Corporation, completed his testimony today before the Senate Labor Commission investigating the steel controversy. During a colloquoy with members, particularly with Senator Walsh, Democrat, of Massachusetts, Judge Gary flatly declared that he could not now consider compromise or arbitration, or meet with strikers' representatives.

PITTSBURG, Oct. 2.—The steel strike situation in the Pittsburg district remained virtually unchanged today. Steel company officials continued to maintain that more men were returning to work and tonnage was being increased, while the striking men's leaders declared their men were "holding firm." The Steelton plant of the Bethlehem company was reported by union organizers 75 per cent down. Union men were reported to be holding firm at Coatesville, Pa., although strike-breakers are alleged to have been imported. More than 300 girls employed on light machine work at the Oliver and Snyder Steel Plant here walked out this afternoon, headquarters reported. They have applied for a union charter.

Soldiers on Saxonia

OTTAWA, Oct. 2.—The liner Saxonia, carrying twenty-nine Canadian officers and 129 other ranks, is now on her way across the Atlantic, and probably will reach Halifax on October 8. Of the total number on board, fifteen officers and 112 men are for Halifax dispersal areas. There also are seven dependents on the boat, according to Militia Department advices.

Unanimity Prevails in Unionist Caucus

Large Gathering of Members Characterized by Harmony and Earnestness—Sir Robert Borden in Address Points to Necessity of Completing Government's War Programme

OTTAWA, Oct. 2. — An official statement covering the proceedings at the Unionist caucus held today was given out tonight. It is as follows:

"Mr. Hume Cronyn presided at a caucus of Government supporters this morning, at which there was a very full attendance. The proceedings were characterized by great earnestness and unanimity. Sir Robert Borden addressed the caucus for an hour, and pointed out in the first place the platform, consisting of twelve articles, which were submitted to the people of Canada on October 8, 1917, and upon which the Government received its mandate from the people. He emphasized the fact that in the policy then outlined there were included not only the vigorous prosecution of the war, but many important subjects. Among them were civil service reform and the abolition of patronage, the extension of the franchise to women, adequate taxation of war profits, effective arrangements for demobilization, the care and vocational training of returned men for assistance in enabling them to locate upon the land, and for adequate pensions. Besides this, the policy had included the development of transportation facilities, co-operative management of the various railway systems, the encouragement and development of shipbuilding and the investigation of the possibilities of air service. It also embraced effective measures to prevent excessive profits, and it included the general development of the varied resources of Canada, their conservation and utilization for the advantage of the people, the adequate consideration of the needs of the industrial population and the maintenance of good relations between employers and employed.

"The Prime Minister strongly emphasized the fact that the record of the Government in the fulfilment of its pledges to the people was unequalled in the political history of this country. He then proceeded to elaborate at considerable length the policy which should direct and control the administration of public affairs during the lifetime of the present parliament. He invited the close and earnest consideration of the supporters of the Government to the programme thus outlined, and he suggested that at a later date a caucus should be held at which the opinions of members of the party, after due consideration, should be expressed upon the programme which he suggested for their consideration.

"The proposals of the Prime Minister were received with enthusiasm and approval. Several members of the Government, including Sir George Drayton, Mr. Sifton, Mr. Rowell, Sir George Foster, Mr. Calder and Mr. Maclean, were called upon to speak, and their addresses were received with warm applause.

"Sir Robert Borden was greatly touched by the spontaneous and warm welcome with which he was greeted. He announced his intention, under the advice of his physician, of taking such rest from active work as would enable him thoroughly to regain his usual health and vigor.

"The caucus broke up with enthusiastic cheers for Sir Robert, for the Ministers who had spoken and for the Union Government."

Subsequent to the caucus, Sir Robert stated that he was feeling better, but it was apparent that his attendance at the caucus had been a considerable strain and that he is in need of a complete rest.

GIVES INDICATION OF SESSION'S CLOSE

OTTAWA, Oct. 2.—An indication of the intention of the Government to bring the parliamentary session to an early close is given in a motion by Sir George Foster, taking private members' day for Government business commencing with Monday next.

It is thought that the only thing in the way of prorogation by the end of the week is the inquiry being conducted by the special committee into the matter of soldiers' civil re-establishment.

The committee is rushing its work by holding many afternoon and evening sittings, and the taking of evidence can probably be concluded by the middle of next week, after which the members will have to deliberate on its findings.

Strike at Rubber Works

MONTREAL, Oct. 2.—Fourteen hundred employees, male and female, of the Consolidated Rubber Company, are on strike today at the big factory on Notre Dame Street East. They claim that the reason they have gone out is that the management has been discriminating against the president of their union, J. R. Morrin.

Young Women Fear Bolsheviki

PARIS, Oct. 2.—Chemist shops at Archangel are openly selling poison to many young women who are buying it with the expressed intention of killing themselves rather than fall into the hands of the Bolsheviki, according to an American officer who has just arrived from Northern Russia.

FIUME IS CAUSE OF COMPLICATION

Blocks Way to Conclusion of Treaty With Hungary and Retards Work of Conference—Italians Rebellious.

PARIS, Oct. 2.—It is announced that the French naval base at Fiume has been closed and that the last French soldiers and sailors will leave that port on board the cruiser Condorcet today.

ROME, Oct. 2.—Premier Nitti, in a letter addressed to his constituents, declared that in the present emergency there is the utmost necessity of re-establishing discipline in the army and ending domestic conflicts. He asserts that "all Italians are animated by the same patriotic spirit, the only divergence being relative to methods followed in managing affairs."

FIUME, Tuesday, Sept. 30.—Discipline among Italian regular soldiers is very low along the armistice line, and their officers have little control over them in enforcing the blockade of Fiume. As a result Capt. Gabriele d'Annunzio's army is being constantly reinforced by deserters, whole companies and battalions marching into Fiume to join his forces.

PARIS, Oct. 2.—The situation in Hungary, upon which depends the negotiation of a peace with that country, is much overshadowed by the Fiume complications, since the Italians are quite unwilling to take any action which might be offensive to Roumania, and a large portion of French officialdom is apparently supporting the Italians in this inaction. As a result the British and American members of the supreme council are the only ones who are insisting that Roumania must cease harassing Hungary, so that a new government may be established with which peace can be negotiated.

There is grave doubt whether certain powers are making any attempt to force the blockade on Roumania, and their officials in the Balkans are apparently making little effort to carry out their instructions.

At this rate, restoration of order in the Balkans and the completion of the Hungarian treaty will be long delayed, and the conclusion of the peace conference may be prolonged indefinitely.

ROME, Oct. 2.—The Italian steamer Epiro, with 200 Italian troops and some American officers on board, bound for Cattaro, is declared in a dispatch from Bari to The Temps, to have been shot at by Jugo-Slav regular forces.

FIUME, Tuesday, Sept. 30.—Gabriele d'Annunzio's staff is in the palace here engaged in working out military problems. They have laid plans for a surprise attack on Dalmatia, but it is not intended to carry them into execution—they were simply "for fancy."

Rear Admiral Andrews, head of the American naval forces, will retain his headquarters at Abbazia. The cruiser Pittsburg is still at Spalato. The Jugo-Slav frontier has been completely closed by d'Annunzio's forces.

PARIS, Oct. 2.—Dr. Milenko R. Vesnitch, one of the Jugo-Slav delegates to the peace conference, told the Associated Press this morning he was not surprised at Captain Gabriele d'Annunzio's declaration that he considered himself in a state of war with Jugo-Slavia.

"It is only a continuance of his cinematographic procedure," said Dr. Vesnitch.

"As far as the kingdom of Serbs, Croatians and Slovenes is concerned," he continued, "it does not know Capt. d'Annunzio, and consequently has no reason to take notice of his declaration."

ITALIAN SOCIALISTS OPEN THEIR CAMPAIGN

ROME, Oct. 2.—The Avanti, Socialist organ of Milan, published an appeal from the headquarters of the Socialist Party to the proletariat, convoking a national Socialist congress at Bologna, October 5. Preparations for the general elections will be made at this meeting.

The newspaper states that over 81,000 Socialist voters are officially registered throughout Italy, and that the number will soon reach 100,000. The appeal says:

"The next battle will not be a simple electoral contest but a high manifestation of force by the Socialist proletariat to overthrow the bourgeois regime."

WINNIPEG MAYOR IN FIELD AGAIN

Mr. Gray Announces That He Is Candidate for Re-election —Seeks Judgment of Public on His Course.

WINNIPEG, Oct. 2.—Mayor Chas. F. Gray, formally announced today his intention to seek re-election for another year on November 28 next, and opened his campaign at the C. P. R. shops when 3,000 workers were at lunch.

A certain percentage of the men did not wish to hear what he had to say.

"Do you want to hear me?" asked Mayor Gray amid a regular hubbub of voices, some contending for hear hearing and others for him to leave.

"All right, then, I am quite satisfied," he said. "I want to tell you first of my intention to run again so that you can organize your forces against me. I'll fight you like hell."

The Mayor intends to carry the fight into the enemy's territory, he declares. "I will go to places where I have been invited by returned soldiers and be glad to attack the 'Reds' on their own battle ground," he asserted. He said much criticism had been levelled against him because of his attitude during the general sympathetic strike, and he desired that the whole people of the city should have the opportunity of either vindicating or disapproving his course.

QUESTIONS MOTIVE OF J. HARRY FLYNN

WINNIPEG, Oct. 2.—That J. Harry Flynn, president of the Gratuity League of Toronto, is wofully ignorant of returned soldiers' problems, that his tactics have seriously impeded the advancement of the bonus scheme, and that there is grave reason to question his motives, are statements made by C. G. McNeil, Dominion secretary of the G.W.V.A., in a telegram received at the Manitoba command office today.

Mr. McNeil said that the only phase of the question of further financial aid which had been touched upon by the committee was whether it was within the country's resources, which, in the opinion of the Dominion command of the association, and that of other veterans' organizations represented at the sessions of the parliamentary committee, could only be determined by responsible representatives of the people. He said that the representatives of the veterans' organizations dissociated themselves from such statements as were made by Mr. Flynn, which seriously reflected upon brother institutions and the sense of fair play.

LAL SINGH MURDER CASE PROCEEDING

SOUTH VANCOUVER, Oct. 2.—Hernam Singh, one of the four Hindus who are on trial in the South Vancouver police court for the murder of Lal Singh in May, 1917, when asked at the time of his arrest last month what happened to Lal Singh, lost consciousness, swayed and fell to the ground.

This developed in the evidence of William Spratt, a detective on the South Vancouver police force, who arrested Hernam Singh on September 17 last. When the question was put by Detective Spratt to the Hindu the latter made no answer, but seemed to lose entire control of himself and fell in an inert mass. Hernam Singh was asked by the detective to accompany him to the courthouse.

Charred bones, believed to be those of the missing man, were found in a mill burner.

The case is proceeding.

Korean Insurgents

HONOLULU, Oct. 2.—Armed Korean insurgents are massing in Northwestern Korea awaiting favorable opportunity to sweep down upon the country, according to a dispatch dated from Tokio printed in The Nippu Jiji, a Japanese newspaper, here today. The dispatch says a more serious uprising than the one in March last is anticipated and that Japanese troops are being held in readiness for such an emergency.

WINNIPEG, Oct. 2. — Sir Henry Drayton, Minister of Finance, will speak in Winnipeg on October 16, formally opening the Victory Loan campaign here.

JOIN J. H. FLYNN IN HIS CAMPAIGN

Grand Army Delegates From Vancouver Refuse to Appear Before Re-Establishment Committee at Ottawa.

OTTAWA, Oct. 2.—The special committee on re-establishment had a series of galvanic shocks this evening when it was known that Messrs. Gothard and McKenkie, delegates from the Grand Army of Canada, Vancouver, had left to join J. H. Flynn in his fight for the $2,000 gratuity, and would not come before the committee. They left a message for the committee, which was delivered after the chair had called these witnesses several times, in which they stated that they did not intend to go through the same grilling as Flynn had been subjected to, and would join him in his course of public meetings.

Earlier in the day C. G. MacNeil, counsel for the G.W.V.A. produced before the committee a "human document" in the form of Rupert C. Pritchard, a man who had served with the British and Canadian armies and had been wounded and shell shocked; was unable to resume his trade, which before the war had netted him 70 cents an hour, and now was "broke." He had just secured a job delivering telegrams for the Canadian Pacific Railway Company's Telegraphs, at which he hoped to earn a living while waiting for his pension cheque. He had been receiving $12.50 a month, which was being increased on October 1 to a 40 per cent disability, which would pay him $288 a year.

He had been brought from Washington to enter the Vocational School; became dissatisfied and left because they refused him the course he wanted, and then could only get a ticket back to the border, where he would have been stranded.

Captain N. F. Parkinson, recalled, said Pritchard, a previous witness, had been found unsuitable as a motion picture operator owing to his disability, and was given a commercial course as a multigraph operator. Pritchard, the witness, said Mr. MacNeil, was hardly in a full normal condition owing to his being shell-shocked. There is a private fund at the department which may be had to carry a man in straitened circumstances until he receives his pay and allowances.

FRENCH CHAMBER RATIFIES TREATY

Heavy Majority Is Cast for Its Approval—Agreements With Britain and U. S. Are Also Ratified.

PARIS, Oct. 2.—The Chamber of Deputies today ratified the German peace treaty by a vote of 372 to 53.

The Chamber then took up the treaties between France and the United States and France and Great Britain. The Franco-American and Franco-British treaties were unanimously ratified.

A total of 501 votes was cast for the two treaties.

Complete ratification of the Versailles peace treaty with Germany by both houses of the French parliament is expected, very shortly, possibly within four days. Following today's ratification by the Chamber of Deputies, the Senate will immediately take up the discussion. The peace committee of that body has already completed its study of the document.

The debate in the Senate is expected in parliamentary circles to be quite short, possibly not exceeding four days.

ORDERS DISSOLUTION OF DEFENCE LEAGUE

VANCOUVER, B.C., Oct. 2.—The Labor Defence League, which became prominent during the strike last Summer, being termed the "Red Guard," was ordered dissolved by the Trades and Labor Council (O.B.U.) this evening.

Delegate Midgley stated that some time ago, prior to the strike, when the labor meetings were threatened with interference, the Labor Defence Committee was formed. During the strike it grew to several hundred members. They wore the red "L" button, and according to evidence which came out in connection with the deportation proceedings against Russians here, one of the buttons was used by a detective engaged in getting evidence.

Mr. Midgley stated that the purpose of the organization had been served. He mentioned that the organization had been termed the "Red Guard" and the advance party of the revolution. He moved that it be disbanded and that the buttons be called in. The motion was put and carried.

DEWS OF EVE
No More Gentle Than "Cascarets" for the Liver, Bowels

It is just as needless as it is dangerous to take violent or nasty cathartics. Nature provides no shock-absorbers for your liver and bowels against calomel, harsh pills, sickening oil and salts. Cascarets give quick relief without injury from Constipation, Biliousness, Indigestion, Gases and Sick Headache. Cascarets work while you sleep, removing the toxins, poisons and sour, indigestible waste without griping or inconvenience. Cascarets regulate by strengthening the bowel muscles. They cost so little ???

PRINCE WILL NOT TOUR UNITED STATES

NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—An Associated Press dispatch from Washington today says:

"The Prince of Wales, who is now touring Canada, will come to Washington in about a month for a visit of three days, but he will not make a tour of the United States, Mayor Babcock, of Pittsburg, has just been informed by Chairman Porter of the House Foreign Affairs Committee.

"'I am reliably informed,' said Mr. Porter, 'that it is the wish of the British Government that the Prince of Wales upon leaving Canada, should spend but three days in Washington, returning to New York thereafter, from whence he sails for Europe, and that a tour of the United States will not be made.'"

GENERAL GRAVES TAKES OFFENCE

Holds Up Shipment of Rifles for Omsk Government Because of Articles in Vladivostok Paper.

OMSK, Tuesday, Sept. 23.—Major-General William S. Graves, commander of American forces in Siberia, in retaliation for alleged scurrilous articles published in a Vladivostok newspaper, and hostile acts of Cossack chiefs in the Far East, has held up a shipment of 14,000 rifles which recently arrived at Vladivostok from America consigned to the all-Russian Government of Omsk.

Giving notice of his action by telegraph through Major Slaughter, his representative here, General Graves, in direct and forceful language, declares he will probably cause the arrest of the offending editor and the suppression of the newspaper—the Golos Rodini—unless the Omsk Government does so. He asserts further that unless the activity of the Cossack chiefs is controlled, he will recommend that America refuse to render further assistance to Russia. General Graves says he will retain the arms until advised as to what action the Omsk Government proposes to take.

In replying, the Omsk Government says that in its view, the subject constitutes a diplomatic and not a military problem, which should be approached through recognized diplomatic channels, and that the Government, therefore, awaits a communication from the State Department at Washington. It says that "not wishing to formulate any criminations, it would not enter into an argument which might impair the lively sympathy which it believes has been awakened in America for the cause of Admiral Koltchak."

In respect to the holding up of the shipment of rifles, astonishment is expressed by the Government that local troubles in the Far East, which the Government regards as an international problem, and not a purely Russian one, should impel Gen. Graves to take steps which might jeopardize a far-reaching and more vital undertaking, namely, the suppression of Bolshevism at the critical moment when Siberian troops are conducting a successful offensive.

It is pointed out that General Graves' course is "peculiarly astonishing in view of the fact that the rifles were bought and paid for by the Russian Government."

The threatened suspension of the newspaper, it is declared, could not conceivably be construed as a matter subject to American military jurisdiction.

MAUNA LOA EJECTS GREAT LAVA STREAM

HILO, T. H., Oct. 2.—A stream of lava one thousand feet wide is flowing into the sea at the rate of from 20 to 30 miles an hour from the crater of the volcano Mauna Loa, which first threw forth lava Saturday. These streams of lava are now a virtual river from 20 to 30 feet high. Where the lava flows into the sea the water is boiling for half a mile, and is strewn with dead fish.

The sides of the flow are banked up by cooled lava, and red-hot boulders carried in the stream explode when they hit the water. Property damage resulting from the activity of Mauna Loa has not been large, although some forests and a few houses have been destroyed. The lava flow is mostly through a barren country covered by previous flows.

Several herds of cattle are reported penned in by the divergent flows. Near the source of the flow the volcano remains normal and seemingly unaffected, although great clouds of steam can be seen coming from the peak.

Volcano Kilauea, an adjacent peak, remains unaffected by Mauna Loa's activity. Thousands of people are going from Hilo and other points on the island to witness the flow.

Commissioner for Board of Commerce Opens Inquiry at Vancouver — Consumers Get Measure of Blame.

VANCOUVER, Oct. 2.—Although no evidence was formally taken, some lively discussions were heard at the initial sitting today of the Board of Commerce under the chairmanship of Lieut.-Col. H. D. Hulme, Commissioner for British Columbia, at the Court House. The inquiry started off with a fair number of intensely interested spectators, and at the counsel table were J. B. Pattullo, K.C., the Dominion Government counsel, and D. A. Macdonald, K.C., who is the counsel for the Provincial Government at the hearing. A feature of the first session was the number of women who were present, and who were in most cases prepared to give the commissioner the benefit of their views.

"The public should make their complaints in writing, and should come forward and lend us every possible assistance, otherwise the beneficial results we hope for may not accrue," suggested Mr. Pattullo, at the start of the inquiry.

"I trust the public will, now that there is an opportunity, do their best to help us grapple with this problem," said Commissioner Hulme.

Retailers Welcome Inquiry

"The retail trade approves very heartily of this investigation," said Mr. Corley, Secretary of the Retail Merchants' Association. "The retailers themselves are the victims of the lack of system in distribution just as much as the consumers. There may be individual cases of hoarding or taking advantage of the conditions, but to hold these up as typical of the trade is most unfair. Our association would like to be represented here by a qualified accountant during the hearings, if possible."

"I see no objection to that," remarked the Commissioner. "Are the retailers of this city limited in their charges by any order that you know of, Mr. Corley?"

"The retail merchants have not heard of any order," replied the secretary.

Robert Dinning, of the B.C. Division, Canadian Credit Men's Association, stated that the wholesaler gets the price of sugar from the refinery and sells to the retailer at that price. The retailer's profit was generally understood to be one cent per pound.

"Then if we find merchants charging more than that profit they are guilty of an offence," remarked the commissioner.

The commissioner asked if any of the ladies at the inquiry would like to give the board the benefit of their opinions on these questions. "What we need in Canada is a system of free trade—with all tariffs on foodstuffs abolished," said one lady in answer to a question from the commissioner. "We do not want any restrictions of any kind upon trade, and to remove these we must go after the Government."

"I blame the people for paying the present prices at all," said another. "The people themselves are to blame largely. If they refused to pay these prices they would soon come down. But as it is they actually make for the highest priced article. Their pockets are full of money, and many even boast of the high prices they pay."

"Those same people who pay the prices are, in your opinion, the very people who complain loudest of the high cost of living?" asked the commission.

"Exactly," replied the witness.

Alderman Joe Hoskins characterized the present prices of commodities as "something fearful," particularly such necessities as beef and coal, in which, he stated, excessive profits are being made.

Only punishment of profiteers will serve any purpose in this inquiry, in the opinion of D. Stevens, who was also strongly of the opinion that the producer is not to blame for present prices, but that the fault is between the manufacturer, wholesaler and retailer. Mr. Stevens suggested that too much food material is destroyed in and around Vancouver.

"A curious fact about the city restaurants," remarked Mr. Stevens, "is that while beef is lower in price than last year, it costs more on the restaurant menu today, and also, that you can buy New Zealand mutton and butter more cheaply in Seattle and Portland than you can in Vancouver. It costs about one-third less to feed a family in Portland, for instance, than here. Fruit stores run by foreigners are heavy profiteers, and another fact is that infected fruit is displayed for sale—at top prices."

"Spread" in Beef Prices

The spread in the price of beef, from producer to consumer, was brought up by Alderman Hoskin when he informed the board that on a recent visit to Calgary he had purchased beef on the hoof for 7½ cents a pound, and could have bought the best beef for 9 cents a pound. In this connection, he informed the board that people of Vancouver did not know whether they were getting the best beef or some other kind.

The commission will continue its sittings on Monday morning at 10:30 o'clock in the Court House, when witnesses representing different trades will be examined by the commissioner and by counsel.

PARTIES CHOOSE MANY CANDIDATES

Nominations Made in Several Electoral Districts of Ontario—Minister Bitterly Attacks United Farmers.

TORONTO, Oct. 2.—An interesting contest in the Provincial arena is promised in South Wellington, where an Anglican clergyman, Rev. C. H. Buckland, was nominated yesterday by a Conservative convention. His Liberal opponent probably will be Sam Carter, M.P.P., who returned from a trip to the Old Country recently, and has not yet been formally nominated as the Liberal candidate. Rev. Mr. Buckland was formerly rector of St. James Church, Guelph, and was a chaplain with the C.E.F. in France. The South Wellington Conservatives also named Archdeacon Mackintosh as a possble candidate, but the Archdeacon declined.

Controller W. J. Robbins, a prominent labor man of this city, received the Conservative nomination of Riverdale last night, Joseph Russell, M.P.P., retiring owing to ill health. Controller Robbins' name has been freely mentioned lately as the probable Government appointee to the proposed Ministry of Labor. Lieut.-Col. W. H. Price, M.P.P., who has been acting as counsel for the Board of Commerce in its investigations in Toronto, was again nominated as the Conservative candidate in Parkdale.

North Victoria Conservatives nominated Dr. R. M. Mason, M.P.P., to be their candidate again.

South Waterloo Liberals nominated Dr. S. E. Charlton, of Galt.

West Hamilton Conservatives nominated Mr. James A. MacFarlane, draughtsman in the Hamilton Bridge Works, as their candidate. Mr. John Hamilton, M.P.P., refused to run again.

East Hamilton Conservatives decided last night not to put a candidate in the field. Lieut. Sam Landers and Capt. Fitzgerald have been nominated by returned soldiers.

ST. THOMAS, Ont., Oct. 2.—When Hon. F. G. MacDiarmid was nominated by the Conservatives of West Elgin yesterday he declared that the United Farmers' movement was "a vice" that should be destroyed at once. The farmers had been ill-advised and he urged any farmers present to realize their mistake. "I am a farmer," he declared, "and I appeal to you as farmers."

STRATFORD, Ont., Oct. 2.—Mr. J. J. Mason, president of the Globe Wernicke Company, of Stratford, was nominated by the Conservatives of North Perth at a convention at Milverton yesterday to contest the riding for the Legislature. This makes a three-cornered contest, with Mr. W. F. Hay, sitting Liberal member, and Mr. W. A. Amos, nominee of the United Farmers. Lieut.-Col. J. L. Youngs, M.C., whose name had been presented to the convention, declined to run, as he was not altogether in sympathy with the Hearst Government's policy on the temperance question.

TORONTO, Oct. 2.—Major J. I. Hartt, M.P.P. for East Simcoe, has issued a writ against Mr. R. H. Halbert, president of the United Farmers, claiming $10,000 damages. He alleges that the defendant on August 14, at a farmers' meeting at Barrie, "recklessly, falsely and maliciously" charged Hartt with having said at a meeting in North Bay, that "farmers were like a lot of hogs feeding at a trough and after they are all full still squealing for more. He asks for an injunction to restrain Halbert from repeating this statement.

LUXEMBURG'S VOTE LEAVES NO DOUBTS

LUXEMBURG, Oct. 2.—The final result of the plebiscite held to decide whether the old dynasty should remain in power or a republic be proclaimed, and whether Belgium or France should be chosen as the economic ally of Luxemburg, was as follows:

For the retention of Grand Duchess Charlotte, 66,811; for a republic, 16,885; for France as an economic ally, 60,136; for Belgium, 22,242.

BITRO-PHOSPHATE IS GOOD FOR THIN NERVOUS PEOPLE

A PHYSICIAN'S ADVICE

Frederick S. Kolle, M.D., Editor of New York Physicians' "Who's Who," says that weak, nervous people who want increased weight, strength and nerve-force, should take a 5-grain tablet of Bitro-Phosphate just before or during each meal.

This particular phosphate is the discovery of a famous French scientist, and reports of remarkable results from its use have recently appeared in many medical journals.

If you do not feel well; if you tire easily; do not sleep well, or are too thin; go to any good druggist and get enough Bitro-Phosphate for a two weeks' supply—it costs only fifty cents a week.

Eat less; chew your food thoroughly, and if at the end of a few weeks you do not feel stronger and better than you have for months; if your nerves are not steadier; if you do not sleep better and have more vim, endurance and vitality, your money will be returned, and the Bitro-Phosphate will cost you nothing.

MONDAY'S BANQUET

General Sir Arthur Currie on Monday evening next, at the Drill Hall, will be the guest of the British Campaigners at a banquet. While under the auspices of the Campaigners, this mark of recognition of Canada's great military commander and of Victoria's citizen, who won high honors in the Great War, can be taken part in by all who purchase tickets. The idea is to make the banquet an occasion of extending a rousing welcome to General Currie upon his home-coming after over five years of absence. There are other welcoming ceremonies planned, and included in these is the presentation of an address and a life membership by the Great War Veterans' Association, as well as tributes from the Provincial Government and the City. The banquet, however, will be the outstanding event in the desire of the citizens to do honor to one who has shed such lustre on the Dominion by the qualities of leadership which he displayed on the battlefield. On this account we have no doubt it will be fully attended. Elaborate preparations are being made to insure the occasion is celebrated in a manner worthy of the city's pride in her foremost citizen. A resounding welcome is purposed and has been richly earned.

A QUESTION OF PARTIES

Many party politicians do not want a Unionist Party in Canada, but those who have coalesced from Conservative and Liberal ranks under Sir Robert Borden are seemingly agreed that the coalition should be continued. There is hardly any other interpretation to be placed on the result of the caucus meetings at Ottawa during the past few days. The coalition was effected for specific purposes, and, to a large extent, it has been successful in bringing these to fruition. Its tenure of office will probably last until Canada is at peace with every country, but we think that just as soon thereafter as possible a general election will be held, and it will then be for the people to say whether or not a Unionist Party should continue. It is a remarkable tribute to the cohesion of that party that although it is over ten months since the Armistice there should have been so few secessions from its ranks. Among the Ministers there has been only one secession if Mr. Crerar's resignation can be counted as such.

The Unionist Party, if it is to persist, can hardly continue along existing lines. By that we mean that it will have to perfect something in the nature of party organization throughout the country, for that is to all intents non-operative at the present time. No steps that we know of have been taken in this direction, so it may be a decision will yet be reached to revert to the old political lines. The creation of a United Farmers' Party in the Dominion is an upsetting element in all the calculations of political organizations at this time, and doubtless those most closely concerned are awaiting the results of the forthcoming by-elections. To some extent the political situation is in a turmoil, although the politicians of any party would be the last to acknowledge this. There can be no clear indication of the trend of public opinion until a general election, but the coming by-elections will afford an inkling in certain constituencies of what is the estimation of the Union Government One thing is certain, and that is that the reputation of Sir Robert Borden has been enhanced, not only by his conduct throughout the war, but by the manner in which he represented the Dominion at the Peace Conference. Politicians of all parties are agreed upon this.

WHAT'S WRONG

A sound note was struck by the Duke of Devonshire yesterday in his address before the Canadian Club when he spoke of the responsibility of each citizen in the government of the land. Too often, as he pointed out, the people, after exercising the franchise, leave the Government to do the rest or attack that Government because it has not lived up to their expectations. Their course should be to take an active interest in government, not only at election times, but always, and by that interest the hands of a government would be strengthened and it would be better able to fulfil the task of administration. His Excellency did not put it quite in these words, but what we have pointed out was undoubtedly what he meant. He wanted to illustrate the necessity of a livelier and more continuous interest on the part of the country as a whole in all those matters which affect the welfare of the Dominion.

The desirability of a wider and more sustained knowledge of the science of politics, which, in its specific interpretation, means government, is a crying need in Canada. Those who do interest themselves take their politics seriously, it is true, but the great mass of the people are apathetic. An instance of this occurred in the recent registration of voters in this constituency. The number who registered was approximately 13,250, whereas there are at least 20,000, and possibly more, who are qualified to exercise the franchise. Thus, somewhere in the neighborhood of 7,000 people, men and women, failed to register, and unless they rectify their omission during the sittings of the court of revision next week they will be deprived of the franchise at the coming by-election. Languid indifference, and no other reason, can be assigned to the lack of interest in the task of government. The coming by-election is important to Victoria, yet we find that over 30 per cent. of those entitled to vote have, so far, not placed themselves in a position where they can exercise the franchise. We find this at a time when women are at last coming into their political rights, and we are inclined to think that it is mostly women who have been absentees from the registration stations.

The advice of His Excellency is admirable. The voters of Canada should, during election times and throughout the years, be alive to the importance of interesting themselves in the political destiny of their country. There is a cry abroad in this and other lands today that governments are not representative of the people. If that is the case it is because only a percentage of the people will take the trouble to go to the polls. The kind of government we have is determined by the ballot, and if that government fails it is the people themselves who are responsible. The task of government is, and will always be, an experimental science, but its tendency towards perfection rests with the people themselves, for in democratic countries all governments spring from the people and reflect the feelings of the majorities who put them in office through electing their political parties to power. The way to help a government to fulfil the expectations of those who are responsible for its creation is not by mud-slinging and attacks, but by co-operation and mass assistance in putting policies into practice. Suspicion and distrust are too rampant today, and they are carried so far in some instances that the people revenge themselves because of imaginary ills by not exercising the franchise, in the belief that by being political atheists they are exercising some unknown prerogative. That spirit tends to be destructive of good government. The feeling that is in evidence was admirably summed up by Jerome K. Jerome, when he said: "Too many grumblers, too many people finding fault, too many scolding journalists, too many critics, too many drum-thumping martyrs, too many Mrs. Gummidges 'feeling it more,' too many people sneering, too many people shouting abuse, too many people spitting venom, too many people seeing evil, too many people who know everything, too much hate, too much scorn, not enough kindness, not enough hope; that's all that's wrong with the world."

The Window

Eye of my life, when Winter hung the hills,
And breath streamed wet above your painted sills,
I stared beyond them, stared at staring snow
Till you should fade and I prepare to go.

But the snow passed nor dallied on my going,
The mists fled and the warm new wind came blowing
Over the hills, the river shone again,
The larks arose to sing me out of pain.

And now the green is stealing from the Summer,
Your glass recedes, daily the hills grow dimmer,
And once the Autumn casts away its wreath,
Eye of my life, you shall be eye to death.

—Edward L. Davison in Westminster Gazette.

On Whom So Much Depends

It is a singular thing that the two professions which are worst paid should be those of the National School teachers and the clergy, and both in their respective fashions have to deal with the moulding of juvenile intelligence. It is a strange paradox that while we recognize that education is of fundamental importance to a State, and that the training of the citizens of the future is one of the most serious tasks which can be laid on the shoulders of those responsible for public instruction, we yet pay such a miserable pittance to men of whom we ask so much. Only very slowly, it would seem, is an adequate view of what education involves making its way in our community. One of the first things we have to do is to recognise that the nation which is going to succeed in our new world is the nation which has properly organised its elementary and secondary education, and which in every respect tries to secure a thoroughly scientific and practical training for its citizens.—London Daily Telegraph.

Too Much State Intervention

We do not contend that modern conditions do not require a greater degree of state intervention than was necessary when the nation was young. But there is reason to believe that without realizing the consequences the American people are coming more and more to surrender their individual independence and lean on the State. Nowadays the American, instead of thinking what he can do for himself, thinks first of how he can get The State to do something for him. Consciously or not his ideal of the State is that it should be a benevolent despot.—Chicago Tribune.

GENERAL CURRIE HERE MONDAY MORNING NEXT

Reception Programme Will Commence at 10 o'Clock, When Distinguished Victorian Lands at Wharf.

At 10 o'clock next Monday morning Victoria will welcome General Sir Arthur Currie on his return to his home town. At that hour Sir Arthur will land from the boat on which he will come over from the Mainland and proceed to the Legislative buildings where the first item in the programme of welcome which will be tendered to him will take place when Premier Oliver, on behalf of the Government, will present an address of welcome and also a piece of plate on behalf of the people of the Province.

Arrangements for the reception were completed at a meeting last night of the general committee named some time ago on the suggestion of Hon. John Hart, Minister of Finance, for the purpose of co-ordinating the various plans which had been launched by various organizations for giving the distinguished Victorian a suitable welcome home. As arranged the programme for Monday—all that the committee is dealing with—will be as follows:

Sir Arthur will come over from Vancouver on Sunday night, arriving here in the morning. He will be entertained at breakfast on the boat by Major-General R. G. E. Leckie, C.M.G., G.O.C.; Hon. John Hart, Mrs. Spofford, Mrs. Margaret Jenkins and Mr. H. J. Young, members of the general committee. The general will land at 10 o'clock, and after inspecting the guard of honor composed of seventy-five men of the 5th Rgeiment, will proceed by motor to the steps of the Legislative buildings, where the Premier and members of the Government as well as representatives of various public bodies will be waiting.

After the reading of the address of welcome by Premier Oliver and the presentation of the piece of plate, General Currie will enter a motor and head an informal procession of decorated motors, containing representatives of the naval and military forces, members of the Cabinet and Legislature, public bodies, the public, etc., the procession proceeding along Government Street to Yates Street and east along the latter thoroughfare to the Carnegie Library, where the Mayor and members of the City Council will be waiting. There Mayor Porter will present an address of welcome on behalf of the city. With this ceremony the proceedings for the morning will terminate.

On Monday afternoon a public reception will be held by the Government in the Connaught Library, Legislative buildings, from 2:30 to 5:30 p.m., at which full opportunity will be given to everyone to meet and welcome General Currie. This reception will be quite informal and will be on similar lines to those held at New Year's by the Government in the Library building. No cards of admission will be required, the whole reception being open to everyone desiring to attend. During the reception refreshments will be served and a programme of music rendered.

At 7:30 o'clock Monday night General Currie will be the guest of honor at the grand banquet to be given by the British Campaigners at the new Armory Building, North Douglas Street. For this function tickets are now on sale. An office has been opened in the Belmont Building, Humboldt Street, and a committee is in attendance. Orders for tickets and seats at the various tables may be placed by telephoning 2520.

Mayor Porter will declare Monday morning a public half-holiday to permit everyone being on hand to give fitting greeting to General Currie. A committee composed of Mrs. Jenkins and Mrs. Spofford was appointed last night to interview the school principals with a view to arranging for the attendance of the school children on the Parliament grounds Monday morning. Space for the various detachments of Boy Scouts, Boys' Naval Brigade, School Cadets, etc., will be arranged on the grounds by Mr. Young, secretary of the general committee. It is particularly requested that for Monday morning's ceremonies as many returned men as possible will be on hand in uniform and also that the existing decorations be allowed to remain up and others erected wherever possible. Also, the committee hopes, all motor owners who can possibly do so will decorate their cars and participate in the procession from the Legislative buildings to the Carnegie Library. It is suggested that those organizations which contemplate presenting addresses of welcome to General Currie should get into communication with Mr. Young, secretary of the general committee, at once. He may be seen at his office, 214 Pemberton Block, or can be telephoned to on phone 2345, between 2 and 6 o'clock this afternoon.

Wheat Board Meeting

WINNIPEG, Oct. 2.—A public meeting of the Canadian Wheat Board will be held in the City Hall, Vancouver, at 2:30 p.m., October 6, for the purpose of hearing expressions of opinion on the handling of the British Columbia wheat crop by the Canadian Wheat Board.

PRESS COMMENT

State Aid Run Mad

One subsidy makes another. The taxpayer has to subsidize a loss of sixty millions on the railways this year because the Government is still carrying goods at pre-war rates, although the post-war expenses have risen enormously. And the subsidized railways have beguiled their traffic from the coastal steamers, which used to carry seventy million tons every year, and now have had to look for work elsewhere. The result is that our docks are congested with imports which the coastal steamers are not helping to remove, the railways are overloaded and belated, and the warehouses are blocked. The Government now produces their inevitable, their fatal remedy—subsidize the coasting vessels. Certain goods must now be carried from port to port by steamer, and the excess of the shipping over the railway rates will be refunded.—London Daily Mail.

Wolfe's Monument

An ugly thing with a vengeance in the cenotaph of General Wolfe in the northern ambulatory in Westminster Abbey. It is too large, too broad, too high, too hideous in every way. Yet, strange to say, there was a dean, old Zachary Pearce, who was actually to honor this ponderous and dismal specimen of eighteenth century art, so-called, by substituting it for the exquisitely beautiful thirteenth-century work of Edmund Crouchback in the sacrarium hard by. The latter was to have been handed over to Horace Walpole for his garden at Strawberry Hill. For the last three years the dreary outlines of Wolfe's monument have been completely enshrouded by the colors of Canadian regiments not a few—a most delightful addition to the many historical features of the Abbey. But, alas! the sons of Ontario and Nova Scotia are one by one claiming their colors once more, and the old monument has reappeared to view. Two more have just gone. Only four colors now remain, and I suppose the two regiments to which they belong will soon be following the example of their brothers. I cannot help thinking that it would have been a delightful thing if replicas of these colors could have been presented to the Abbey and left to grace Wolfe's monument as a permanent memorial here in our midst of the great war.—London Daily Express.

FIFTY YEARS AGO TODAY

(From The British Colonist of October 3, 1869).

Narrow Escape From a Horrible Death—Mr. Mowatt's daughter, of View Street, a girl of some twelve years, was reading in bed on Thursday night, when her clothes caught fire. She had sufficient presence of mind to tear off the burning garments and cast them from her, but was considerably burned.

Dead—Mr. James Swainson Wilkes, formerly of this city, died quite suddenly at San Francisco on the 25th. He was 45 years old. Mr. Wilkes leaves a wife and several children, but providently insured his life some months ago.

Highway Robbery—Three sailors of H. M. S. Scarrowhawk are under arrest on a charge of highway robbery. They are charged with knocking down a Chinaman and stealing from him his watch, chain and hat.

LOYAL EXPRESSIONS FROM B. C. WOMEN

Delegations Representing 20,000 of the Womanhood of the Province Received by Duchess of Devonshire.

An incident of very great interest to the women of British Columbia occurred at Government House yesterday afternoon, when Her Excellency the Duchess of Devonshire received a deputation of ladies representing twenty thousand of the women of British Columbia, and accepted their expressions of loyal greeting.

The proceedings took place half an hour prior to the big reception which was held during the latter part of the afternoon. Welcomed by Lady Barnard in the drawing-room, the ladies were marshalled as three separate deputations, Lady Barnard herself, as honorary vice-president of the National Council of Women, standing with the three other ladies representing the Council, viz., Mrs. R. S. Day, provincial vice-president of the National, and Miss Crease and Mrs. Spofford, representing the provincial executive. As a separate delegation were grouped the representatives of the Imperial Order of the Daughters of the Empire: Mrs. R. C. Boyle (Vancouver), provincial president; Mrs. Henry Croft, honorary provincial president; Mrs. Hasell, vice-president; Mrs. Cookson, Echoes secretary; and four councillors, Mrs. Curtis Sampson, Mrs. A. E. Griffiths, Miss Josephine Crease (who bore the standard), and Mrs. David Miller. Representing the Victorian Order of Nurses, another Order in which Her Excellency is much interested, were Mrs. Harold Robertson, Mrs. Goulding Wilson, Mrs. Quainton, Miss Oldfield, Mrs. Christie, Miss McNair, and Miss Norcross.

After the deputation was arranged by Captain Mellin, Her Excellency, escorted by Captain MacMillan, entered, and the formal presentation took place, the head of each deputation presenting those of her delegation in turn. The first address was that from the Provincial Executive of the National Council of Women, read by Mrs. R. S. Day. This read as follows:

Loyal Address

"To Her Excellency the Duchess of Devonshire, Honorary President of the National Council of Women of Canada.

"May it please Your Excellency:

"We, the members of the Provincial Executive of the National Council of Women of Canada, representing the Local Councils of the Province, the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire, the Women's Canadian Clubs, the Women's Christian Temperance Union, the Order of the King's Daughters and the Women's Institutes of the province, beg to have the honor of extending to Your Excellency a very sincere and cordial welcome on this, the occasion of your first visit to our city and province.

"We rejoice to have this opportunity, graciously accorded to us by you, of greeting Your Excellency as Honorary President of our parent organization and of assuring you of our recognition of and fidelity to the great principles underlying all work carried on in the name of the Council of Women, which is composed of the above and other affiliated organizations and many standing committees. We have followed with interest and admiration your many kindly acts which evince your earnest desire to promote, by every means in your power, the welfare of the people of this Dominion during your term of residence amongst us, and we beg to be permitted to pay this tribute to your example and work.

"In this province we, too, are striving to sympathetically understand the great problems of the day relating to industry, education, health, etc., and to meet and deal with them patiently, intelligently and justly.

"Here, as elsewhere, there is a crying need for improved and enforced public health regulations and an adequate public nursing service, and as women we also realize the ne[illegible]cessity for building up the home life of the nation at the present time, and feel that some means must be provided whereby help in the homes may be given to overburdened mothers, who, owing to the strain and stress of daily life and the increasing difficulty of 'making both ends meet,' dread maternity and all that it comprises.

"We feel that the presence of Your Excellency, as a woman and mother, amongst us, will inspire us with fresh enthusiasm for the great tasks which lie before us, and in the name of the women of British Columbia we again bid you welcome and pray that your visit may be a truly happy one."

This address was signed by Mrs. R. S. Day, provincial vice-president of the National Council of Women; Miss Crease, for the Local Councils of the province; Mrs. Boyle, Provincial president, for the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire; Mrs. S. D. Scott, for the Women's Canadian Clubs in British Columbia; Mrs. J. Harvey, for the Women's Christian Temperance Union in British Columbia; Miss Margaret Leitch, for the provincial branch of the Order of the Kings' Daughters; and Mrs. Blackwood Wileman, for the Women's Institutes of British Columbia.

I.O.D.E. Presentation

The provincial branch of the Imperial Order of the Daughters of Empire also presented formal greetings, welcoming Her Excellency as honorary president of the Order, and asking her to continue her kindly interest and her happy directing influence over the organization. Their address was signed by Mrs. Boyle, provincial president; Mrs. Croft, honorary provincial president; Mrs. Hasell and Mrs. Bayfield, provincial secretary.

A gift of beautiful Duchess du Cayla roses in a handsome basket of native Indian design accompanied the address from the Daughters of Empire, Mrs. Croft presenting the blooms, which were accepted with a few gracious words from Her Excellency.

The Victorian Order of Nurses, whose deputation included not only the officers but the nurses both of the Victoria and Saanich branches, also tendered a brief address of welcome, in which were expressed the loyalty and affection of the Order.

Her Excellency Replies

The address read by Mrs. Day as provincial vice-president of the National Council of Women, was inscribed on a parchment scroll and tied with the National Council colors, navy and pale blue. After listening to the words of greeting and expressions of loyalty, the Duchess of Devonshire addressed the little gathering of ladies.

"I want to thank you all most heartily for the very kind welcome you have extended to me, and for the kind and encouraging words which have just been read," said Her Excellency. "It is a very great privilege and pleasure to me on this, my first —but I certainly hope not my last—visit to this wonderful province of yours, to have the opportunity of meeting the representatives of those bodies of women who have done, and are doing, so much for the welfare of their own community and for this great Dominion and Empire.

"During the long and anxious years of the war, when the prospect of success in the future depended so much on keeping a good heart in the face of grave and prolonged anxiety, nothing was more helpful and encouraging to the whole community than the splendid spirit of the women of Canada and the way in which they worked for the common cause, regardless of their own sorrows and suspense.

"Now that, mercifully, peace is established, we are faced in every part of the globe with problems no less important, no less urgent, and in many cases far more complicated than those which had to be dealt with during the war. In Canada we may well be thankful that there are bodies of women such as those you represent who are capable of dealing wisely and bravely with these difficult questions, and whose influence, both in their own homes and districts and in this great Dominion as a whole, will, I feel sure, have a very far-reaching effect in forming public opinion, along good, sound lines, on those great problems relating to industry, education and health, to which you have alluded in your addresses.

"Once again I thank you for your kindness in coming here today, and for your cordial welcome. May I wish you and those twenty thousand women of British Columbia whom you represent every success and happiness, both in the work you have undertaken for the public good and in your own home lives."

Lady Dorothy Cavendish and Miss Saunders were present during the proceedings, and later, while the Duchess of Devonshire chatted informally with the members of the various delegations, entered into conversation with some of the ladies, most of whom remained for the reception held subsequently at Government House.

GUEST OF BREEDERS

Premier Will Attend Function at New Westminster Today—Movements of Ministers

Premier Oliver left last night for New Westminster where he will today be the guest at the dinner being given by the Stockbreeders' Association, one of the chief social functions at the Royal City fair this week. The Premier will speak on the subject of what the Provincial Government has done to assist the stock breeders of the province, especially in respect of the importation of stock for the use of settlers. He will be back in the city tomorrow.

Hon. William Sloan, Minister of Mines, left yesterday on a two weeks' trip to the Slocan and interior mining sections, where he will investigate a number of matters pertaining to the mining industry of that section, including the French Complex Ore Company, of Nelson, a concern which, after being financially assisted by the Government, has ceased operations.

Hon. T. D. Pattullo, Minister of Lands, is expected to return today from a short trip to Grand Forks and district, where he has been investigating irrigation problems in the dry belt.

"I SUFFERED SEVEN YEARS"

Was Eventually Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Philadelphia, Pa.—"I suffered for seven long years with a lame back, irregularities and pain. I had one physician after another but they did me no good. I read about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and gave it a trial and in a short time I felt benefited and am now feeling fine, and without weakness or pain. Many of my friends have also taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and been helped by it."—Mrs. MARGARET NESS, 1846 E. Hazzard St., Philadelphia., Pa.

Women who suffer from displacements, irregularities, inflammation, ulceration, backache, sideache, headaches or "the blues" should not rest until they have given this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a trial. If complications exist, write Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for special suggestions. The result of its long experience is at your service.

Unusual Value

We offer a slightly used 1919 model 85 Overland five-passenger, ran less than 3,000 miles, driven only by one person and one who knows how to take care of a car (this man wanted a larger car so traded it in on one of our beautiful six cylinder models). It has just been revarnished and is completely equipped with non-skid tires, including a brand new Nobby with tire cover, spot light, clock, bumper, rear searchlight, electric horn and licence paid to the end of the year. This model as now equipped would sell for $2,000 new. Engine is mechanically correct and car throughout good as new.

If you are contemplating buying a car in the near future see this one at once.

City and District in Brief

Cyclist Injured—Mrs. Gibson, of 580 Boleskine Road, was slightly injured at 12:30 p.m. Wednesday while cycling on Johnson Street near Broad Street when she was run into and knocked down by motor 5877.

New Settlement Area—Announcement of the formation of a new Land Settlement Area near Smithers is contained in the current week's Provincial Gazette. The area, situated in Range Five, Coast District, includes 5,337 acres.

Women's Political League—The annual meeting of the Women's Independent Political League will take place this evening in the Victoria Club, Campbell Building, at 8 o'clock, when officers will be elected for the ensuing year.

Trial for Theft—Evidence in the case against A. R. Hatch, charged with stealing a rowboat, will be taken in the Assize Court this morning before Mr. Justice Macdonald. The Grand Jury returned a true bill yesterday morning.

Prince of Wales' Guard—All members of the Guard of Honor are requested to turn in all clothing and rifles to the quartermaster stores without delay. No definite date for a pay parade can be set as a number have not yet turned in their equipment.

Bank Clearings—Half Million Increase—The Victoria bank clearings for the week ending October 2 are $2,427,374, as against $1,857,806 for the corresponding week in 1918. This shows an increase for the week just closed of $569,568.

Harvest Festival—The annual harvest festival of the Salvation Army will be held at the Citadel, Broad Street, tomorrow, Sunday and Monday next. Donations in cash or goods will be thankfully received. Special services have been arranged for the week-end.

Small-pox Prevention—Regulations issued by the Provincial Health authorities to prevent the spread of small-pox set forth that within the electoral districts of Cariboo, Lillooet, Kamloops and Yale, to which the regulations refer, all race meetings and similar gatherings are prohibited.

Ex-Imperials—A special table has been reserved for all former members of the Imperial forces attending the banquet to be given in honor of Gen. Sir Arthur Currie on Monday night next. All those requiring tickets are asked to apply as early as possible at the committee rooms on the ground floor of the Belmont Building.

Greeting to Duchess—The Municipal Chapter, I.O.D.E., on Wednesday sent to the Duchess of Devonshire on her arrival in the City a letter of greeting accompanied by a gift of flowers, a mammoth bouquet of Michaelmas daisies and pale pink carnations, which, it was hoped, Her Excellency would place in her room.

Military Five Hundred—The regular bi-monthly entertainment of the Connaught Seamen's Institute was held last night, taking the form of a military five hundred party. A large number of sailors and soldiers were in attendance, and nearly all brought their friends. Keen competition was evinced for the prizes, of which a number were given. Mr. W. Wilby acted as master of ceremonies and received the heartiest thanks of all.

Glee Club Organizes—The Y.M.C.A. Glee Club are to organize tonight at a meeting called for 8 o'clock at the Y.M.C.A. buildings. A leader and pianist in the persons of Mr. Harold Davis and Mr. W. Johnston have already been secured, and it is expected that a large number will enroll for the season. Anyone who can sing or is fond of singing will be made heartily welcome. All who desire to join the Glee Singers should enter their names tonight.

Wan P. O. Instructor—Lieut. W. M. Hotham, of the Boys' Naval Brigade, is calling for the services of an ex-Imperial petty officer or leading hand to act as instructor to the lads of the local division of the Boys' Naval Brigade. The division is now up to the promising strength of 225, and a few more recruits will be accepted for the Esquimalt sub-division. Owing to the number of lads requiring training another instructor is urgently required.

Speedy Travelling—Yesterday the Pathfinder II., piloted by Mr. W. H. Brown, flew to Puyallup, near Tacoma, a distance of 105 miles, in the excellent time of 95 minutes. The Aerial League fitter went along as passenger to humor the machine during the period. The Curtiss is attending the Washington County Fair at Puyallup, and will be flown back probably on Sunday or Monday. The engine from the original machine is now installed in the Pathfinder II., which probably accounts for the excellent speed made. Making amends for the dull period during the last few days, yesterday was a perfect flying day and visibility was good.

Addresses Corner Club—Mr. T. P. Miller, who recently formed a Boys' Corner Club, was the speaker at the regular meeting of the Girls' Corner Club at the I.O.O.F. Hall last evening. Mr. Miller gave a brief but very interesting little talk, expressing the hope that the two clubs might combine their meetings at an early date and give the members an opportunity to meet in a social way. This club now numbers nearly 20 boys, and shows promise of becoming a very healthy organization. Mrs. A. J. Woodward, president of the Girls' Corner Club, presided at last night's meeting, which was preceded by an appetizing supper served at prettily decorated tables. A solo, rendered by Mrs. F. T. Dougal, and choruses by the entire gathering added to the enjoyment of the meeting, which was attended by over 50 members and friends of the club.

Pride of Island Lodge—Pride of the Island Lodge, of the Sons of England Benefit Society, held the first of a series of dances they purpose holding this season in the K. of P. Hall on Wednesday evening. Notwithstanding the weather and counter-attractions, fully 200 were present. The music was supplied by the lodge orchestra, consisting of six pieces, under the leadership of Mr. Zala. Everyone enjoyed themselves, and dancing ceased at 11:30. The National Anthem was sung, and a most pleasant evening came to close.

Eastern Star Dance—About three hundred dancers enjoyed the programme of up-to-date music furnished by Heaton's Orchestra at the informal dance given last evening by the Sunshine Club of Victoria Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, in the ball room of Alexandra House. The attractive appearance of the hall was further enhanced by the use of golden marguerites and Autumn flowers combined with greenery. During the evening solos were rendered by Miss Livingstone and Mr. F. Ward. Punch was served in the downstairs cafe. The net proceeds from the affair, which was an outstanding success, both socially and financially, will be devoted to the benevolent work of the club.

VETERANS OBJECT TO IVENS' MEETING

SARNIA, Ont., Oct. 2.—Yesterday the Labor Council announced that Rev. Ivens would address a labor meeting next week, and last night the Great War Veterans' Association asked Mayor Nesbitt to prohibit such a meeting.

Members of the G.W.V.A. claim that they have nothing against the Trades and Labor Council, as many of them are members of that body, but they state that they will not stand for the heads of the party bringing Ivens here.

The soldiers state that they will take their case to the Minister of Justice to keep Ivens out of Sarnia.

Whiskey Disguised as Soap

TORONTO, Oct. 2.—Seven hundred and fifty bottles of whiskey, shipped as soap, were seized by policemen in the C. N. R. freight sheds last night. At the average price charged by bootleggers the seizure would be worth $4,500. Five hundred and seventy-four bottles were packed in cases and consigned to the Ontario Soap Company.

A Wonderful Selection of Carpets

Aside from the saving you can effect by purchasing carpets or rugs at this store, the very fact that you can make a selection from such an immense variety of patterns should influence you to come here for such furnishings. Indeed, it is no exaggeration to say that there are a very few stores in Canada today showing a more extensive variety of carpets and other floor coverings than do Weiler Bros., Ltd., of Victoria.

Wilton, Axminster and Brussels squares, in the best qualities and dyes, are the subject of a specially attractive display. Almost every size that one would care to purchase is obtainable—in dozens of exquisite patterns and shades. The less expensive squares and rugs are shown at prices that are as low as present conditions permit.

Curtain and Cover Materials

In conjunction with the Carpet Department of this store there is maintained a section devoted to the display of household draperies, etc. At present new importations of chintz, cretonne, fadeless casement fabrics and art tapestries are displayed.

WAR'S TEST ONLY UNITED EMPIRE

Principles Underlying British Community of Nations Have Withstood Hardest Shocks, Duke of Devonshire Declares

Stronger than ever and unshaken, the British Empire has stood the supreme test, while nations built of weaker stuff have crumbled, and their kings, emperors and presidents tottered and fallen into obscurity. The Empire today is united in readiness to meet the problems of peace with the same spirit that won the greatest war in history.

These were the dominating thoughts presented to the Canadian Club yesterday by His Excellency the Duke of Devonshire, Governor-General of Canada. He spoke at a luncheon in the Empress Hotel, attended by more than 300 Victorians.

His Excellency declared that he knew of no country with greater stabilizing influences than Canada, and for that reason he was optimistic regarding the Dominion's future. He pointed out that it was the duty of every Britisher to accept a fair share of the country's responsibilities during these trying times, and held that the only real remedy for the present condition of industrial unrest and its kindred ills lay in the formula of "work and save."

President John Cochrane, of the Canadian Club, presided, and with him at the guest table, in addition to the Governor-General, were: Lieutenant-Governor Sir Frank Barnard, Col. the Hon. E. G. Prior, Mayor Porter, Major-General R. G. E. Leckie, Capt. Martin, R.N., C.M.G., Hon. John Hart, Mr. J. F. Scott, president of the Rotary Club; Very Rev. Dean Quainton, Rev. H. S. Osborne, Capt. the Rev. Father Anselm Wood, Capt. MacMillan, Lord Haddington and Capt. Mellin.

Mr. Cochrane's Address

Introducing His Excellency, Mr. Cochrane said:

"Since we last met as a Canadian Club, this capital city of British Columbia has been honored in having as its guest the heir-apparent to the throne of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and the Dominions beyond the seas, His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales. To all with whom he came in contact His Royal Highness has endeared himself by his cordial personality, his deep interest in the Canadian people and his early realization of the responsibilities which may some day rest upon his shoulders as Sovereign of the greatest Empire the world has ever seen. As a Canadian Club we are highly honored in having as our guest today the representative in this Dominion of his most gracious majesty the King. We recall with pleasure the former visit of His Excellency the Governor-General to this city nearly two years ago, on which occasion we were privileged to have him address our club. At that time we were in the midst of the great world war and upon the very day of our Canadian Club luncheon to His Excellency, the news of the daring exploit of British and Canadian troops under Sir Julian Byng at Cambrai, was flashed around the world from the battle front in France.

"Subsequently that temporary advantage was lost and our Empire was called upon to pass through dark and discouraging days when all the co-ordinated resources of Germany were launched against the Allies in an attempt to secure a decisive victory. As we now know, that supreme effort of Germany was the last mortal struggle of a disgraced, defeated and dying cause. The Allied forces, after that final surge of the Germans, swept all before them, and, last November, secured a victory which we believe will vindicate democracy for all time. In contributing to this result, the achievements of our Empire, both Motherland and Overseas Dominions, within the last five years, are unprecedented in history.

Effort in War

"We may state as a fact, without boastfulness or exaggeration, that our Empire during the war has upheld the best and highest traditions of our British race, with fearlessness, with promptitude, with honor and with unselfishness, has assumed the white man's burden without hesitation, and, since the conclusion of peace, has promptly ratified her international undertakings and obligations under special and general treaties and shouldered her additional responsibilities in the interests of humanity, as becomes the leading power and the greatest and freest system of Government in the world today.

"With what added dignity and responsibility the events of the last five years have enhanced the privilege of British citizenship. On this occasion we would express our appreciation of the deep and kindly interest taken by our distinguished guest of today during his term of office, not only in the war efforts of our Canadian people, but in every public activity having for its object the advancement and improvement of our national life.

"It is, of course, impossible to accurately predict what lies before our Canadian nation in the future, but we believe that, by adopting the spirit of honor, of unselfishness, of responsibility and of sacrifice so clearly exemplified by our Empire in war and peace, we may, in the Providence of God, erect in this Dominion with all her vast resources, one of the highest and happiest expressions of government which the pages of history will ever record."

Confident of Triumph

"The last time I addressed you was nearly two years ago, and the horizon was dark," said His Excellency. "But I left here with a renewed hope that the spirit of this country and of British Columbia, undefeated and undefeatable, would carry us through to the end. I remembered the sacrifices so nobly borne and realized that, even though more critical and arduous days might lie ahead, the spirit of patience and perseverance so typical of all Canada would enable us to look forward confidently to a crowning triumph in the long run.

"We meet under much happier auspices today, knowing of the splendid part the Empire played and of the success which met her effort in the war. Thousands of homes are in mourning, but those people who have had dear ones fall in the struggle feel a pride and satisfaction in the knowledge that those who were lost gave their lives in the greatest of all human causes.

"Germany's war machine was the greatest organization ever devised by the hand of man for the deliberate purpose of destruction and selfish world domination. But, in spite of the fact that the schemes were carefully laid and planned in their minutest detail, the whole fabric broke and yielded to the determined spirit of the Empire and her Allies. The war was brought to a conclusion by our gallant armies, backed up by a united people at home.

History Yet To Be Made

"What is the position that we face today? The story of our army's achievement in the war will be handed down to future generations as one of the brightest pages in a history already crowded with a chronology of great deeds. The history of Canada spells success in all stages of development. But there is history to be made. There are many changes to be wrought, many new opportunities before us.

"In a few days," continued the Governor-General, "I will receive an act of Parliament approving in formal manner the peace treaty that was agreed upon at the greatest conference in history. This treaty and its approval by the Government of Canada represents another onward step in the development of our country. Now that Canada has placed her stamp of endorsation on this document, she may take her place not only as a unit in the British Empire, but as one of the great nations of the world — place she has won by the gallant deeds of her men across the seas, by the conduct of her statesmen at the Peace Conference and moreover and above all by the character of her people.

Must Accept New Duties

"This situation brings to Canada fresh liabilities and obligations. But during the war Canada never shrank from her duty, and I do not believe that she will make any attempt to ignore this new responsibility — I think I am justified in calling it a privilege—that has fallen to us. But we must make it perfectly clear in accepting this duty that in our internal business we are as free from outside interference as ever we were before.

"But I am not going to trouble my head about definitions of how far we have committed ourselves and how free we are under this new condition. Fifty years ago the statesmanship of Canada evolved the principles of Confederation. It is for our own statesmen of today to settle the share of Canada in this great obligation to the Empire and to the world at large.

"Today the Empire stands in a stronger position than ever before. It is a peace-loving, law-abiding and non-military community of nations. It has been built up in all portions of the world by the industry, courage and self-sacrifice of our ancestors. The British Empire is as self-governing and independent as ever, yet it cheerfully accepts at this period in its history these new obligations.

Vision is Needed

"There were many differences at the time of Confederation, but there was vision and imagination in Canada's statesmen and the problems were successfully surmounted. I feel sure that by bringing the same principles to bear we will be able to lay at the present moment an addition to the great imperial structure that will make the Empire greater than ever before.

"The bonds holding together our Empire were never stronger. Canada has given expression to its loyal sentiment during the tour of the Prince of Wales. The Prince of Wales was entitled to, and would have won anyway, a notable welcome simply on account of his friend-making personality, but, besides, he was a representative of the throne of England. Last November, at the very moment when ancient dynasties of Europe were crashing to the ground and emperors were fleeing in all directions, the King and Queen of England went down to the very heart of their people and shared with them the thanksgiving for the victory that had been achieved. Instinctively, the people of London, as though driven by a common impulse, flocked to Buckingham Palace, and their one cry was, 'We want King George.' And when he appeared they sent up a cheer that resounded throughout the Empire. What a contrast was this spectacle to what was taking place in other countries, where nationhood was built on different groundwork! The spectacle was illustrative of the deep, underlying movement that is bound to bring the Dominions and the Motherland closer together.

Empire's Gift to World

"Our institutions stretch far back into the ages and from small beginnings they grew, tested by time and moulded by various conditions, until in peace or war they are capable of standing any crisis and adapting themselves without panic or confusion to the needs of future generations. I have just read in a remarkable book, prefaced by a very eminent American, the statement that a priceless gift the British Empire has given to the world is the growth of free institutions. We are free men, living under free institutions. We must see, in our turn, that this priceless heritage must be passed on unimpaired, and with added lustre and glory to the generations that are to follow us.

"Canadians must not forget that the Act of Confederation, which made Canada one and united, is the foundation upon which every self-governing dominion of the crown has been built up. The laws of South Africa, Australia and other dependencies may differ in many details, but in fundamental principles the Act of Confederation is the foundation of the Empire as we know it today.

Everyone Has Voice

"But if you thought that another form of government was more useful to your purposes and more suitable to the nature of the country and its people, it has always been—and still is—within your power to say so. I don't think you would be content to see any basic change made in the laws of Canada or of the Empire, but I simply cite this as an extreme hypothetical case. It simply points a moral. You must remember that you have absolute control of your own affairs. Every individual has a voice that will be heard. And for that reason a heavy responsibility rests on the shoulders of every one of us. It is thirty years since I took my seat in the British House of Commons. I have become accustomed to politics and political procedure. I know that there are a good many people who, when they cast their vote, sit back and think that their duty ends there and that the only thing to do after that is to abuse and criticize the men they elected to office. But the people of the Empire must realize now that the problems that confront us today are not such as can be delegated to any restricted body of men. Every individual must take cognizance of his individual responsibility; not only that—his privilege of citizenship.

A Convinced Optimist

"As a result of the war many ancient landmarks have disappeared. Old idols have fallen and new ones have been set up. We are facing new conditions at every turn. But frankly I must confess that the more I see and know of Canada the more I become a convinced optimist. We have problems to face, to be sure, but we have the spirit of determination that carried us through the war to solve them with.

"For five years the best brains and the strongest muscles of the Empire were concentrated on means of destruction. Everything was subordinated to the one dominating purpose of defeating the enemy. Now we have a new task for this energy. I don't like that word 'reconstruction' that has been used so much. It implies that we have something to be built anew and made over. That is not the case. The foundations need not be re-laid. They have been standing there through the centuries and they are secure.

Work and Economize

"We hear much about the social unrest, about the high cost of living and troubles between labor and capital. These problems are not confined to our own country. They are world-wide, and they are, in my opinion, simply the natural consequence of the destruction that has taken place on such an enormous scale. Various expedients will be adopted and they may help, but, after all, there is only one geuine remedy and that lies in the adoption of the two principles—economy and work.

"Canada should be hopeful and confident. Nowhere can be found such stabilizing influences as in this Dominion. I have been traveling through British Columbia and I have learned many things I did not know before concerning the vast opportunities that the country offers. Your forests and mines and agricultural lands—they offer a wonderful reward. But British Columbia's potential strength is not based alone on those material considerations, but on the character of the people who are working the industries. You have in this province in great abundance all those assets that are essential to life and happiness. We should lead the way in peace just as we led in the war and make the most of these assets. Not only should those industries of ours yield the utmost, but it does not require much imagination to behold Canada a few years from today the home of a great host of self-reliant, confident and hard-working people. It only rests with the individual to see his duty and his opportunity."

In moving the vote of thanks to His Excellency, Lieutenant-Governor Sir Frank Barnard referred to the love and respect which the Governor-General and the Duchess of Devonshire had earned from the people of Canada. He felt that he was expressing the feeling of everyone when he said that British Columbians keenly looked forward to the next occasion on which the vice-regal party might visit this coast.

President Cochrane assured His Excellency that the ties of Empire had been materially strengthened by his efficient administration at Ottawa and he expressed on behalf of the Canadian Club sincere gratitude for the address.

Mr. Cochrane announced that Lieut.-General Sir Arthur Currie, according to present plans, will address the Canadian Club at a luncheon next Tuesday noon.

CUT THIS OUT

OLD ENGLISH RECIPE FOR CATARRH, CATARRHAL DEAFNESS AND HEAD NOISES

If you know of some one who is troubled with Catarrhal Deafness, head noises or ordinary catarrh, cut out this formula and hand it to them and you may have been the means of saving some poor sufferer perhaps from total deafness. In England scientists for a long time past have recognized that catarrh is a constitutional disease and necessarily requires constitutional treatment.

Sprays, inhalers and nose douches are liable to irritate the delicate air passages and force the disease into the middle ear, which frequently means total deafness, or else the disease may be driven down the air passages towards the lungs, which is equally as dangerous. The following formula, which is used extensively in the damp English climate, is a constitutional treatment and should prove especially efficacious to sufferers here who live under more favorable climate conditions.

Secure from your druggist 1 ounce of Parmint (Double Strength). Take this home and add to it ¼ pint of hot water and a little granulated sugar; stir until dissolved. Take one tablespoonful four times a day. This will often bring quick relief from distressing head noises. Clogged nostrils should open, breathing become easy and hearing improve as the inflammation in the eustachian tubes is reduced. Parmint used in this way acts directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system and has a tonic action that helps to obtain the desired results. The preparation is easy to make, costs little and is pleasant to take. Every person who has catarrh or head noises or is hard of hearing should give this treatment a trial.

Gas in the Stomach Is Dangerous

Recommends Daily Use of Magnesia To Overcome Trouble. Caused by Fermenting Food and Acid Indigestion.

Gas and wind in the stomach accompanied by that full, bloated feeling after eating, are almost certain evidence of the presence of excessive hydrochloric acid in the stomach, creating so-called "acid indigestion."

Acid stomachs are dangerous because too much acid irritates the delicate lining of the stomach, often leading to gastritis accompanied by serious stomach ulcers. Food ferments and sours, creating the distressing gas which distends the stomach and hampers the normal functions of the vital organs, often affecting the heart.

It is the worst of folly to neglect such a serious condition or to treat with ordinary digestive aids which have no neutralizing effect on the stomach acids. Instead, get from any druggist a few ounces of Bisurated Magnesia and take a teaspoonful in a quarter glass of water right after eating. This will drive the gas, wind and bloat right out of the body, sweeten the stomach, neutralize the excess acid and prevent its formation and there is no sourness or pain. Bisurated Magnesia (in powder or tablet form—never liquid or milk) is harmless to the stomach, inexpensive to take, and the best form of magnesia for stomach purposes. It is used by thousands of people who enjoy their meals with no more fear of indigestion.

Two Engineers Killed

BAKERSFIELD, Cal., Oct. 2.—Engineers Hart and Newbill were killed, and their firemen seriously injured, when northbound Southern Pacific train No. 49, which left Los Angeles at 7:30 last night, was wrecked at 12:50 this morning by running into a steer at Cameron, on the Tehachapi Mountain, 19 miles west of Mojave. The two engines drawing the train were overturned, and four baggage cars were derailed. The injured fireman were taken to Mojave.

Taming My Husband

By Kathleen Fox

More Debits Against Marjorie

I knew perfectly well that the things Crittenden had given me were meant as an apology—an apology of gifts, I knew, too, that the impulse that prompted the giving came from his heart, that he meant it. Which made them easy of acceptance, especially since I loved him. We find it easy to forgive when we love.

Only one thing disturbed me. I had a fear that his apology was at best a seasonable thing, that it was designed for the one purpose, that it did not mean Crittenden never would show the ugly side of his nature again. However, I was young, my spirit was resilient, buoyant, I loved him. I had the right to hope, no matter if my faith was a little shaky.

Enthusiastic and happy as a boy that evening, after he had recovered from the shock that Marjorie's remarks had given him, Crittenden talked a great deal. He was gay during dinner, praised the menu, complimenting both Ellen and me, and ate in keen enjoyment.

He invited me to his den after dinner, and for awhile we sat in silence as he smoked. But I felt intuitively that he was going to say something presently about Marjorie Boyd. He did.

"That girl," he said in an undertone, apropos of nothing but our thoughts. I wondered instantly if mine had reached him telepathically.

"Who, Crittenden?" I asked. Though it was not necessary for me to ask what about her. His tone had implied that she had displeased him. Also I knew whom he meant, but inquired, nevertheless.

"Marjorie Boyd. Confound it, she's always getting under my skin," he complained. "I wish she'd stop her everlasting pecking at me. She's not exactly on the credit side of my books anyway."

"Oh, you mean this afternoon, Crittenden?" I asked, innocently enough!

"Yes. She had no business rubbing it in. You know, Bess, how I felt about that."

"I know."

"She's uncanny. Three or four times, now, she's said things that made me think you'd been confiding in her. What she said this afternoon looked like it."

"But I haven't, Crittenden. I'd be ashamed—" I stopped.

"What's that?" asked Crittenden, alert in his chair. "Ashamed of what?"

"I'd be ashamed to tell outsiders about my home affairs."

"Well, I should think so," he agreed. "And I wouldn't hold that against Marjorie," I went on. "What she said was merely a teasing remark, meant to be jolly. Of course it was most inopportune."

"Very," said Crittenden emphatically.

"She would have bitten out her tongue, though, if she had known," I vouchsafed.

"Well, I think she and her friends, too, would be a lot happier if she did that very thing some day."

"Did what?" I was thinking of something else for the moment.

"Bit her tongue out."

I laughed.

"Why, you couldn't wish her a greater misfortune."

"But that would be a blessing," said Crittenden. "She'd have more friends."

"I don't see how the girl could have more friends," I championed Marjorie. "The only way is for her to keep on meeting people. Everybody who knows her is in love with her."

"Everybody?"

"Oh, you don't count, Crittenden; but I'll wager you will be fond of her yet. There's no use fighting against Marjorie Boyd. Before I know it, I dare say, I'll be jealous of her."

"Great guns!" exploded Crittenden. "Let's talk about something else."

"What do you want to talk about?" I asked.

"Oh, I don't know. By the way, I've been sort of looking around for pictures for the den, Bess," he said. "I saw one the other day that I liked, a hunting scene in oils. I believe I'll order it sent out tomorrow."

"Why don't you get at least two large ones and then two or three a little smaller?" I suggested. "Pictures are all you need now to make the den a wonderful room."

"I shall get more eventually," he answered, "only I want to wait till I find exactly what I want. I've only seen the one that I cared for. Will you help me hang it?"

"Certainly," I replied. I was glad we had been able to pass the evening without allusion to our scene in the bathroom, though I knew we both thought of it many times.

TO GIVE HIGH SCHOOL PICTURE OF PRINCE

Camosun Chapter Will Present Likeness of His Royal Highness as Souvenir of His Visit.

A framed picture of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales is to be hung in the High School as a souvenir of his recent visit to Victoria, Camosun Chapter, I.O.D.E, having decided at its monthly meeting on Wednesday afternoon to present a fine likeness of the Royal visitor in his naval uniform.

The regent, Mrs. Andrew Wright, presided at the meeting. Three new members were received into the chapter, Mrs. Quinn, of the Seaforth Chapter, Vancouver, being transferred, and Mrs. J. E. Grice and Mrs. Ellen Taylor being enrolled into membership. Announcement was made of the presentation of a bar pin to Mrs. Rylands prior to her departure for England. The meeting decided to arrange for a bridge party to be held shortly in aid of the chapter's funds.

Mrs. David Miller, secretary of the Municipal Chapter, read her report of the National Chapter annual meeting and a letter of greeting was received from the new National president. Miss Lawson gave a brief but concise report on the work of the Girls' Club at 1242 Fort Street, and the chapter voted $10 towards its maintenance. Another donation of $10 was made to the I.O.D.E. Nurses' Club in London, England. A committee of twelve members was appointed to supervise the care of six soldiers' graves, undertaken by the chapter.

During the meeting a standing vote of sympathy was tendered the Hon. Robert Beaven in the bereavement sustained by the death of his wife, who was a member of the Camosun Chapter.

Mr. George I. Warren, manager of the Home Products Fair, is attending the Provincial Exhibition at New Westminster, having gone over on Wednesday at the invitation of the management.

In honor of Their Excellencies the Duke and Duchess of Devonshire and their daughter, Lady Dorothy Cavendish, the Lieutenant-Governor and Lady Barnard entertained at an informal dance at Government House on Wednesday evening. Dancing was enjoyed in the ballroom, about one hundred and fifty guests, including many of the young social set, being present. A delicious buffet supper was served in the dining-room, the table being decorated with softly shaded lights and adorned with lovely autumnal blooms. During the evening Professor Heaton, whose orchestra furnished the music for the dance programme, was presented with a silver matchbox adorned with the Prince of Wales' feathers. This honor was conferred upon Mr. Heaton by the Prince, as a token of his appreciation of the programmes rendered by the popular musician at the various dances held during the recent visit of His Royal Highness.

Mrs. Morgan is an inspiring speaker; she has deep spiritual insight and is master of her subjects. The lectures are all free and open to anyone who desires to attend. The first of the series will be next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock on "The Power of Prayer." Again the same evening Mrs. Morgan will speak on "The Law of Spiritual Breath."

SIX HUNDRED AT RECEPTION YESTERDAY

Many Attend Function at Government House in Honor of Their Excellencies the Duke and Duchess of Devonshire.

The two days' rain this week was responsible for a slight alteration yesterday afternoon in the intended programme in connection with the visit here of Their Excellencies the Duke and Duchess of Devonshire, owing to the wet conditions of the lawns the garden party designed to take place at Government House assuming the form of an indoor reception.

Between six and seven hundred people, it is estimated, attended the proceedings, the guests being ushered on arrival into the drawing room, and formally presented, first to Their Excellencies, afterwards to His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor and Lady Barnard. From this point the long defile passed into the long ball room, where afternoon tea was served, the buffet holding great bowls of Michaelmas daisies and chrysanthemums for decoration. In the sheltered corner of the Southwest terrace afforded by the high walls of the handsome old building the Great War Veterans' Band sat throughout the afternoon, its programme of military and popular airs eventually attracting many of the visitors out of doors to enjoy the lovely view as well as the music.

Within doors beautiful flowers were found in profusion, massed in the alcoves in the drawing room, being lovely foliage plants, bowls of gold asters, and towering vases filled with the delicate mauve of Michaelmas daisies, which were also together with pink dahlias, employed in the decoration of the handsome hall. The Duchess of Devonshire wore a beautiful toilette of silver grey georgette, with deep-fringed overdress, and a smart helmet-toque of feathers. Lady Barnard was in a very becoming dress of black crepe de chine embroidered with gold and with narrow ermine collar, her black picture hat showing touches of blue. Lady Dorothy Cavendish wore a picturesque frock of white ninon with flowered bodice.

Following the formal part of the proceedings Their Excellencies mingled with the throng of guests, most of whom remained until the Band at six o'clock played the National Anthem.

WEDDINGS

Hitchcox-Hunt

The marriage of Miss Mary Winifred Hunt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Hunt, Broughton Street, to Walter C. Hitchcox, also of this city, was solemnized at the Bishop's Palace, View Street, Wednesday, Rev. Father Wood officiating. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a lovely gown of ivory crepe de chine with pearl trimmings and a tulle veil caught with a wreath of orange blossoms, and she carried a bouquet of pink bridal roses and maidenhair fern. She was attended by her sister, Miss Gertrude Hunt, who was prettily dressed in pale blue crepe de chine with tulle, and carried a bouquet of pink carnations. Mr. Fred W. Hitchcox, brother of the groom, was best man. After the ceremony the guests returned to the home of the bride's parents, where a dainty buffet luncheon was served. After receiving the felicitations of their friends the young couple left on the afternoon boat for Seattle. The bride travelled in a blue jersey cloth suit with white hat. Mr. and Mrs. Hitchcox will reside in Victoria.

BOYS' CONFERENCE COMMENCES TODAY

Large Gathering of Boy Delegates Tonight at St. John's Church—Session Lasts During Week-End.

Plans are now completed for the Boys' Conference to be held commencing today. The opening session of the conference will be held in St. John's Church tonight at 7:45. All older boys attending as delegates are requested to be on hand at that hour.

The adult delegates, Sunday school teachers and ministers, are to be entertained at supper at 6:15 at the Y.W.C.A. restaurant, Yates Street, Dr. Raynor presiding. Mr. W. E. Galloway, and Mr. T. H. Hutchinson, visiting conference speakers, will address the assembly. Following the supper the adults will join the boys at the main session at St. John's Church.

Mr. T. H. Hutchinson will deliver the chief address of the evening on "The Challenge of the Times to Older Boys." The conference will continue Saturday morning and afternoon. Saturday from 4 to 6 o'clock there will be games in the Y.M.C.A. gymnasium, and swimming in the tank for delegates.

Saturday at 6:15 p.m. the big conference banquet will be held in the boys' department, when the boys will be the guests of the ladies of the various City churches, who are very kindly making all arrangements.

The conference leaders hope that every Sunday schools in the City will be represented. Full information may be secured from Mr. Harold C. Cross, Boys' Conference secretary, at the Y.M.C.A.

EXPRESS THANKS

Ladies' Musical Club Highly Grateful to Artists Who Gave Recital Last Night

"No words can express the depth of our gratitude to Mrs. Green and Miss Izard, who have lifted from the Ladies' Musical Club the heavy debt which we have carried over from last year in addition to starting our new musical season with the best programme we have ever been able to offer the people of Victoria," said Mrs. Richard Nash, president of the Ladies' Musical Club, after the recital at the Royal Victoria Theatre last night. Mrs. Nash was anxious on behalf of the society which she represents to voice appreciation of the generous act of the gifted artists who furnished the programme for the evening, turning over the whole proceeds to the Ladies' Musical Club with a view of assisting them to retrieve their fortunes. The deficit has been more than made up, a capacity house greeting the musicians. The society's thanks extend also to Miss Una Calvert, who very ably filled the role of accompanist to the violinist.

CHARGE AGAINST CITY STILL STANDS

Grand Jury Upholds Indictment and Delivers True Bill Concerning Rock Bay Bridge "Nuisance."

The Grand Jury returned a true bill yesterday afternoon in the case against the City Council for "having a nuisance" in the form of the Rock Bay bridge, closed to traffic in 1914 and never since repaired, although the Council resolved to restore it at the time it was closed.

Mr. Justice Macdonald allowed the indictment to go before the Grand Jury in the morning, after City Solicitor H. S. Pringle had argued that the Municipal Act did not oblige the city to maintain a highway or to repair it.

The court questioned this contention and said that while it was customarily the business of the Attorney-General to deal with such matters, the absence of Mr. Farris from the city gave him the responsibility of deciding whether a prima facie case had been made out by Mr. F. A. McDiarmid and Mr. Alexis Martin, acting for the plaintiff owners of Store Street property.

Mr. Justice Macdonald said he was satisfied that placing the indictment before the Grand Jury was the proper course to follow, although he did not commit himself as saying that the case was one of misfeasance or nonfeasance.

The Grand Jury went out at 2:35 p. m. and returned shortly after 3 o'clock.

Mr. Pringle held that the city did not have time to prepare a case at such short notice, and he asked that the matter be held over until the next Assize.

"The plea must be in first," contended Mr. McDiarmid. "My friend would not be aware without your courtesy that the indictment was in. There is no dispute on the facts of the case. It is merely a matter of law."

As the court will be unable to take up the case until Monday Mr. Justice Macdonald ruled that no postponement be granted. The proceedings will be resumed Monday morning at 10:30.

SAILORS' CLUB DANCE

Weekly Entertainment at Esquimalt Institution Proving Very Popular

The weekly dance at the Sailors' Club, Esquimalt, was held last night under the capable management of Mrs. Ranns. Over 100 were present and enjoyed themselves at the function, which is proving increasingly popular every week. Perry's orchestra officiated and gave a musical programme that was much appreciated.

Mrs. Ranns in speaking about the plans for the Winter said that the weekly dance would be continued throughout the season. These dances are very popular with the returned men, and each succeeding week brings new material to enjoy the fun.

Sailors were much in evidence last night, and the uniform generally was in the majority. The merry and contented expression on the faces of all point to the value of the work that the Sailors' Club is performing under the genial management of "Mother Ranns."

OBJECT TO COURSE OF FEDERATIONIST

VANCOUVER, B.C., Oct. 2.—The question of the ownership of the B.C. Federationist, the local labor weekly paper, came up for discussion at the meeting of the Trades and Labor Council (International) this evening. Some of the delegates wanted to know where the organ stood, complaining that the front page was given over to the One Big Union articles, and the International organizations were not being given a square deal. It was suggested by one delegate that the International unions start a paper of their own, but no action was taken.

MUSICAL TRIUMPH FOR GIFTED ARTISTS

Royal Victoria Theatre Was Crowded for Recital by Mrs. Gertrude Huntley Green and Miss Izard.

An audience of twelve hundred people listened enraptured last night to the programme offered, under the auspices of the Ladies' Musical Club, by Mrs. Gertrude Huntley Green, a pianist endowed with all the gifts requisite for world-wide fame, and Miss Mary Izard, a very accomplished violinist, who played her way last night into the affections of all.

The recital, so much looked-forward to by those who have long recognized the former artist's unique genius, more than surpassed expectations in the measure of pleasure which it afforded, and although it was almost inconceivable that the pianist's technical equipment or distinctive personal charm could have been added to by a mere month's study even under so great a master as Leopold Godowsky it must be conceded that a certain maturing of those qualities which have won for her such genuine admiration in the past has enhanced rather than detracted from the singular appeal of her work.

Playing to an audience which packed the Royal Victoria from orchestra to dome the two artists progressed from number to number through a programme of twenty-six numbers, each one of which was a fresh delight to the listener. Although they played very little together during the evening their opening number, the allegro molto ed appassionato movement from Grieg's Sonata in C minor found the pianist and violinist very sympathetic, the characteristically "Grieg" music being interpreted in the same spirit by both artists, and throughout very fine ensemble work being displayed. The two musicians came together again only at the very last of the programme, when Mrs. Green accompanied for the violinist in the Brahms' Hungarian Dance No. 2, and the strange Hubay composition, "Hejre Kati." Here again they were absolutely "en rapport," the firm tone and fine execution of the violinist in the two numbers winning her a great ovation.

Happy Selections

Mrs. Green was singularly happy in the compositions selected for her first group of "moderns." Borodine's "At the Convent," developed in thoughtful measures, sometimes sombre and foreboding, sometimes merely grave and meditative, afforded an excellent contrast for the immediately succeeding number, Ravel's "Jeu d'Eau," the lovely melting tone employed in this being a demonstration of one of the peculiar charms of the pianist's skill. A delicate wraith of poetic melody, in which the pianist discovered for her listener the value of rhythm, was the Godowsky Waltz in G Flat, a little thing written by the composer only last Summer and heard here for the first time last night. Then last of all in this group was the Concert Study by Sternberg, in which the more robust and brilliant style of playing was apparent. These elements were developed on a much vaster scale in the Bach-Tausig Toccata and Fugue in D Minor, the complicated contrapuntal manner of which made great demands on the technical equipment of the artist, who revealed an almost masculine massivity of style, and developed wonderfully big effects as a consequence. The Leschetizsky Andantino Finale from Lucia de Lammermoor is more than a piece of showy left-hand dexterity as Mrs. Green played it last night. The emphasis of the melody and the expression were brought out in masterly fashion.

The Chopin Numbers

Passing over the several subsequent delights of her playing it is necessary, however, to revert to her group of Chopin numbers. Here the chiselled perfection of her art was seen at its familiar best, the exquisite tonal values, pure clarity of notation, rich velvety tone even where the softest pianissimo was employed—these were the fresh proof of the great artist. The Nocturne in G Major revealed again the poetic temperament of the interpreter as well as the composer; the Polonaise in A Flat, with its characteristic rhythm so beautifully and gracefully marked, was an exhibition of the player's ability in still another field of expression.

Miss Izard well deserved the welcome which she received. She, too, has the equipment of an artist, fine broad tone, quick interpretive sense, and musical understanding. The Kreisler "Rosmarin" was an undoubted favorite as she played it, although the Cottonet "Chanson Meditation," a composition almost unheard here hitherto, was played with great eloquence and soulfulness.

Contrast in Style

For contrast in style the Frank Bridges number could not have been improved upon, this being an animated composition played in brisk manner, the infectiousness of which called for an encore. Another particularly beautiful thing which the violinist contributed to the programme was the Bach Air on the G String, which was given with great dignity of expression and richness of tone. The sprightly little allegro by Fiocco, with the mute, was a pretty example of another type of composition altogether.

Miss Una Calvert as accompanist for the violin numbers proved a very sympathetic player, who entirely subordinated her part without making it negligible or insignificant.

The artists were given a very enthusiastic demonstration, and many encores were demanded. The party from Government House, which included Her Excellency the Duchess of Devonshire and Lady Barnard, occupied the boxes on the lower right hand side of the theatre, and to them the artists were summoned after the performance to receive the congratulations of the distinguished patrons.

REVENUE OFFICERS HOT AFTER SCALPERS

CHICAGO, Oct. 2.—With 18,000 reserved and box seats sold the sale of 16,500 pavilion and bleacher seats for the local opening tomorrow of world series play, when the Reds and White Sox come from Cincinnati, will start at 8:30 o'clock tomorrow morning. The reserved seats were sold out several days ago and only chances for those vantage points are tickets in the hands of scalpers who are demanding from $50 to $100.

The scalpers are closely watched by the internal revenue department for collection of the 50 per cent excess profit tax. Revenue men arrested a woman who sought to sell six world series tickets today, but released her when they learned the sale had not actually taken place.

TENNIS WILL GIVE PLACE TO BADMINTON

NANAIMO, Oct. 2.—Instead of tennis it will be badminton for the Winter. So the tennis club decided last evening, when it organized a badminton club with Sergt. Binning, N. McFarlane and F. A. Hanna as a committee to look up suitable quarters and report at next Wednesday's meeting.

Hockey in Alberta

CALGARY, Oct. 2. — Inter-city hockey between Calgary and Edmonton, with two teams in each city, is likely for the coming season. Barney Stanley, of Edmonton, former Vancouver star, attended a meeting of local enthusiasts here last night, and while nothing definite was done, the meeting seemed to prefer inter-city hockey to a city league.

Reds Score a Second Victory Over Chicago

Reds Tighten Grasp With Second Victory

Defeat Chicago White Sox by Four to Two—Claude Williams Up in the Air—Fourth Inning Is Lucky One for Cincinnati

CINCINNATI, Oct. 2.—The Cincinnati Reds tightened their grasp on the series flag today by defeating the Chicago White Sox four to two. As they won the opener yesterday they need but three more games to land the series.

Cincinnati has developed in the brief period of the series so far a habit of celebrating the fourth. There is nothing patriotic about it, for in this victory-mad town the "Fourth" means an inning, not a holiday.

The game yesterday was safely stowed away in the fourth, and, when that inning arrived today, the fans emitted a roar in demand of an encore. In a measure the Cincinnati batsmen responded, but the person who really took the demand to himself apparently was Claude Williams, the Sox left-hander, who was on the mound. He passed three batsmen and three scored, an aviator flew close to the grandstand roof, but if he was looking for Williams, a wit in the press stand remarked, he flew altogether too low. From where Williams floated, the thirty-four story insurance building looked like a speck on the landscape.

In the sixth he passed another runner, and the latter scored, but the tally was not needed. The first three were enough. It was noted that all four of the Red runs were counted by players who had been passed to first.

Hits Were Scattered

Chicago's two runs came in the seventh, the result of two hits and an error by Cincinnati. The visitors garnered ten hits, but they were scattered throughout the game. They hit the ball viciously at other times, but the red fielders were there to receive them. Weaver, Sox third baseman, played in hard luck. He slammed the ball against the left field barrier so hard that it bounded back twenty-five yards and what ordinarily would have been a triple shrunk to a double. Nor was this all that caused the Sox to regard the sixth as unlucky, for "Happy" Felsch, after Jackson had fanned, gave the ball the most powerful wallop yet delivered in the series. It had "home run" written all over it, but Roush, by a magnificent sprint, captured it while running at top speed toward the centre field fence. The cheers which were set up by the Woodlands bards who constitute the Chicago rooting, died abruptly. That catch seemed fateful to them, coming as it did right after interposition of the fence in the case of Weaver.

The pastime was witnessed by 29,600 persons, a slight falling off from yesterday. The weather was that of midsummer, but unlike the oppressive heat of yesterday. The brass band signalized the beginning of practice by the Sox by playing "She May Have Seen Better Days," a mournful bit of sentiment popular twenty years ago, but the spectators recognized it and set up a roar of mixed derision and delight.

Both teams left for Chicago tonight to play games at Comiskey Park Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

The national commission announced the total attendance today was 29,690. The total receipts were $97,146. The players' pool was $52,453.44.

Commission's share, $9,713.60; clubs' share, $44,968.96.

RIVAL MANAGERS ANNOUNCE PITCHERS

Pat Moran Proposes to Start "Hod" Eller in First Game at Chicago—Kerr Probable Gleason Selection.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 2.—With the Reds winners of the first two games of the world's series, Manager "Pat" Moran indicated tonight that he would start "Hod" Eller, one of the mainstays of the Reds' pitching staff, in the third contest of the series scheduled for Chicago tomorrow. Eller, a former member of the Sox, has been with the Reds three years and the present season was the most brilliant of his career.

Supporters of the White Sox believe that Manager Gleason will send Dick Kerr, a left-hander, into the fray in an effort to stop the Reds tomorrow. Kerr is regarded as one of the best pitchers on the Sox staff. Manager Moran was jubilant tonight over the Reds' second victory.

"We have beaten Cicotte and Williams and have nothing to fear from the other pitchers of Gleason's staff," the leader of the Reds said. "I will admit that the victory was a lucky one, that we got the better of the breaks, but winning ball games is the thing that gives players confidence, and, with two games to their credit, my players are brimming over with it. Nothing will stop them from winning the world's title. I expect to start Eller tomorrow according to present plans, although my selection will depend upon the selection made by Gleason."

The triumph of the Reds was termed a "lucky" one by Manager Gleason of the Sox.

TWO JACKS' BILLIARDS

Bert Irish had an easy time winning from Ashworth in their billiard game in the Two Jacks handicap last night. Starting with a handicap of 200 to make up before beginning his count Irish wiped this off and ran off the 250 additional points, when Ashworth, whose handicap was owe 100, had only reached 89 after wiping off the 100.

There was a large crowd in attendance and this fact apparently made the loser very nervous, as he was certainly off his game. Irish made a break of 46 and Ashworth's was 22.

Another game decided last night was that between Creedon (r50), and Askey (o125), Creedon winning by 24 points. Askey's high break was 41 and Creedon's 21.

RECORD GATE TAKEN

CINCINNATI, Oct. 2.—Another record went by the board today when the National Commission announced that the total receipts for the second game of the series, exclusive of the war tax, amounted to $97,136. The nearest approach to this figure by the second game of any previous series was that of 1916 when Brooklyn played at Boston, and the total receipts amounted to $82,626.

GOLF FAVORITES WIN MATCHES IN NATIONAL EVENT

SHAWNEE-ON-THE-DELAWARE, Oct. 2.—All of the favorites in the women's national golf championship tournament under way here came through the second round yesterday, which was played in a steady rain.

The big match of the day brought together Miss Alexa Stirling, of Atlanta, the national title-holder, and Miss Marion Hollings, Metropolitan champion. Miss Sterling, by virtue of her excellent short game, came through with a 3 to 1 victory.

SMOKER AT CASSIDY'S BILLED FOR TONIGHT

CASSIDY'S, Oct. 2.—There will be a Granby smoker at the gymnasium hall next Friday evening with a programme of songs and five wrestling and boxing events. Tom Moore and Tom Walters will meet in a three-round bout. Jimmie Clarkson is matched against Johnny Jackson, William Bailey against Mat Watson and Johnny Morgn has a try with Saltie Shepherd. Don Morrison will referee and D. R. Mitchell will be the announcer. The Kelly brothers lead off with a wrestling match. Members of the baseball tea will receive the season's medals.

DRAWN SOCCER GAME PLAYED AT NANAIMO

NANAIMO, Oct. 2.—The Wholesalers and Grocers struggled for a strenuous hours of play in the first game of the City Merchants' League yesterday, but neither side could get the ball into the net.

Yarrows' Soccer Team

The following team has been selected to play for Yarrows against the Army and Navy Veterans at Beacon Hill tomorrow: Jasper; J. Ord and H. Ord; Roe, Young and Brown; Roberts, Merfield, Shearer, Popham and Watt. Reserves, Rodgers, McUroy, Kerley and Carmichael.

REFEREES SELECTED FOR SOCCER GAMES

Mr. W. H. Hadley, president of the Victoria Football League announced last night that the league has been notified that the ground at Work Point will not be available for the game between Harbor Marine and Foundation on Saturday of this week. The league officials are working hard to secure a ground so as to notify the teams concerned at the earliest possible moment. The game will probably have to be played at the Willows or on the upper Beacon Hill ground; the official decision is expected to be announced today.

The referees selected to officiate at tomorrow's games are as follows:

Comrades vs. Wests, Mr. Fordyce.

North Wards vs. Catholic Army Hut, Mr. Adams.

Yarrows vs. Army and Navy Veterans, Mr. Jones.

Harbor Marine vs. Foundation, Mr. Craigmyle.

G.W.V.A. vs. Fragments, Mr. Stanton.

The above referees are asked to notify Secretary Hill, telephone 5229, if unable to officiate.

President Hadley issues the reminder that home clubs are responsible for marking out grounds, goal posts, etc. In the event of a referee not turning out, the clubs concerned may agree on the appointment of a referee from among the spectators.

CICOTTE UNNERVED BY HITTING RATH

White Sox Pitcher Confident He Can Deliver the Goods When Next Called Upon by Manager Gleason.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 2. — Eddie Cicotte, the master pitcher of the American League, who was driven out of the opening game of the world's series yesterday under a broadside of hits, today expressed confidence in his ability to come back at the Reds whenever called upon. Cicotte, with nearly 30 victories to his credit this season, is carrying the hopes of the Chicago fans on his shoulders, and they have every confidence that he will pitch the Sox to victory in two and possibly three of the remaining games. The master of the "shine" and "knuckle" ball declared today that he was completely unnerved when he hit Rath, the first man up in the game yesterday, and lost all control of the ball in the fourth inning.

"It is hard to explain," Cicotte said, "but I was in no condition to pitch the game I had expected. I felt perfectly confident before the game started and appeared to have 'everything' when I was warming up, but when I hit Rath it seemed to have a strange effect on me. I felt so badly about it that I trotted with him along the first-base line to see if the ball had hurt him. When Rath assured me that he was all right, I went back to the pitcher's mound, but I did not seem to be right."

Supporters of the White Sox believe that Manager Gleason will send Cicotte to oppose the Reds in the game scheduled in Chicago Friday or Saturday.

SOUTH WELLINGTON LEADS STANDING IN ISLAND LEAGUE

SOUTH WELLINGTON, Oct. 2.—In the Island Soccer League South Wellington has 7 points to 3 each for Ladysmith Athletics, Cumberland and Nanaimo United, having won three games, drawn one and lost none. This does not include the Extension games nor the protested Ladysmith-Cumberland match. South Wellington plays Ladysmith Athletics at Ladysmith next Sunday and Ladysmith City meets Nanaimo United at Nanaimo.

COLLECTING BIG GAME SPECIMENS

Mr. Wm. Rindsfoos, president of the Brunson Savings and Loan Co., and Mr. K. Thompson, of Columbus, O., passed through Winnipeg recently en route to the Barkerville country, south of Prince George, B.C., on a big game hunt, and for the purpose of obtaining specimens of big game native to that country for the Smithsonian Institution at Washington, D.C. Two years ago Mr. Rindsfoos visited the Smokey River country north of Jasper, and Mount Robson Parks, and was successful at that time in collecting a splendid lot of specimens. On that occasion Mr. Rindsfoos saw the following number of animals within shooting distance: Sixty-six caribou, 80 moose, 165 sheep, 19 goats, two grizzly, one eagle, six deer, 14 coyotes and two foxes. This is Mr. Rindsfoos' fifteenth year to visit the Canadian Rockies on similar expeditions.

HEAVYWEIGHT CHAMP K.O.'D. BY McDONALD

HALIFAX, Oct. 2.—The boxing bout in this city last night was won by Ruddy McDonald, of Glace Bay, who knocked out Gunner Arnold, Canadian overseas heavyweight champion, in the ninth round.

LEONARD HAS EASY WIN OVER METRE

DETROIT, Oct. 2.—Benny Leonard, lightweight champion, scored a virtual knockout over Charlie Metrie, of Milwaukee, in the seventh round of what was scheduled to be a ten-round go here last night. Newspapermen gave every round to Leonard.

Brookes and Patterson Will Play Here Today

World's Best Tennis Experts to Be Seen in Exhibition Matches on Courts of Victoria Lawn Tennis Club—Dance to Be Held in Evening at Alexandra Club

Everything is in readiness for the great tennis event of the season, which takes place this afternoon on the Victoria Lawn Tennis Club's courts at 2:30 o'clock, when Messrs. Brookes and Patterson, the world-famous tennis experts, will play in a series of exhibition matches, provided the weather is not too inclement.

Mr. and Mrs. Brookes and Mr. Gerald Patterson will arrive this morning by the night boat from Vancouver, and will immediately be taken possession of by the officers and members of the committee of the local club and escorted to the Empress Hotel, where they will remain during their stay in Victoria as guests of the Victoria Lawn Tennis Club. Plans for the entertainment of the visitors have been proposed, which include a motor ride through the Saanich peninsula to Brentwood this morning, visiting the famous gardens at Mr. R. P. Butchart's residence, and possibly the Dominion Observatory, if time permit, returning to town for luncheon before proceeding to the courts at half-past two.

Courts in Good Shape

The courts have been a great source of solicitude to the members of the committee. Mr. T. H. Leeming has given his particular attention to this matter, and has had them covered with tarpaulins for the last few days to protect them from the recent rains and prospective rains. They have dried out finely with the bright sunshine of yesterday, and are now in good playing condition. The exhibiton matches will consist of the following:

Singles

Brookes vs. Patterson.

Mixed Doubles

Miss Idiens and Brookes vs. Miss Marjorie Leeming and Patterson.

Men's Doubles

Brookes and Patterson vs. Schwengers and Garrett.

The committee of the club, at its meeting on Tuesday evening, unanimously chose these players to take part with the Australians in the exhibition matches.

An Old Acquaintance

Mr. B. P. Schwengers will be renewing an old acquaintance when he faces Norman Brookes in the men's doubles, for it was to Brookes, partnered with the late Mr. Wilding, that Schwengers and the late "Bobbie" Powell owed their elimination from the Davis Cup competition, seven or eight years ago in England, after having met and defeated the Belgian and South African teams.

Schwengers has been practically out of the game "seriously" for the last five years, although very recently he has had a little practice and still shows that he knows the game. He and Garrett will make a fair team, and one good enough to enable the spectators to see what a wonderful combination in doubles Messrs. Brookes and Patterson have developed.

Master of Them All

In speaking of his old opponent, Schwengers claims that Norman Brookes is the master of all tennis players. He is of the opinion that no one has ever attained to the same degree in the inner knowledge of the game. When on the courts Brookes simply lives and breathes tennis, and seems to be looking ahead, like a chess player, for the stroke or placement which will enable him or his opponent to win a point. Patterson plays in the vigorous, pressing style, gives his opponent no chance, is always on the attack and rarely resorts to defensive tactics, even when playing a losing game.

If the weather keeps fine, Victorians will be treated today to an exhibition of this popular game by the world's best players, and no one interested in any form of sport should miss the exhibition if possibly able to attend. Seats can be reserved at Messrs. T. N. Hibben & Co.'s store until 12 noon today.

Dance in Evening

In the evening the distinguished visitors will attend the tennis dance at the Alexandra Club ballroom. Tickets for the dance are being eagerly sought for on all hands. The sale has been limited to three hundred, in order that all present may enjoy the dancing in comfort, and, as over two hundred tickets had already been sold on Wednesday evening, anyone desiring tickets should apply to any of the following ladies and gentlemen at once: Mrs. (Col.) Hodgins, Miss Faith Leeder, Miss Aileen Long, Miss Milligan, Miss Grace Robertson, Mrs. G. H. Meredith, Miss Peggy Hodgins, Miss Peggy Jackson, Mr. G. H. Meredith, Mr. E. P. Pollard, Mr. T. H. Leeming, Mr. B. R. Ciceri, Mr. Nairn Robertson, Mr. W. R. Hadley, Mr. J. G. Brown.

BARNARD SUPPORTERS ORGANIZE FORCES

First Public Meeting of Candidate's Followers Brings Forth Mild Criticism of Union Government.

An appeal for volunteer workers to assist the campaign of Mr. T. A. Barnard, the candidate backed by the Federated Labor party in the forthcoming Federal by-election contest, was made by speakers at an organization meeting of supporters of Mr. Barnard held last night in the Crystal Theatre, Broad Street, the headquarters of the Labor opposition to Hon. S. F. Tolmie, Minister of Agriculture, the Union Government candidate.

Following a brief meeting at which speeches were delivered by Mr. W. E. Peirce, whose name went up for nomination at the meeting at which Mr. Barnard was selected candidate; and Mr. R. P. McLernan, a returned soldier, organization was proceeded with by the appointment of ward chairmen and sub-chairmen for the various polling districts into which the wards have been sub-divided. There were about 100 persons present at the meeting, and the speakers were given a fairly hearty hearing. It was explained that Mr. Barnard, candidate, would be here for a meeting to be held at the same place tomorrow evening, and the chairman of the meeting, Mr. Ellis, promised those who attended "some hot stuff."

Mr. Peirce prefaced his remarks by saying he had intended to deal in his speech with some economic problems, and the best way to solve them, but a hard-hearted campaign manager had cut the speeches short to permit of organization work. Mr. Barnard would make an ideal candidate, he opined, and he described the New Westminster man as a "hot number." While some Victorians apparently resented Mr. Barnard's selection, as he was an outside man, it was not a question, Mr. Peirce thought, of where the labor candidate came from, but rather what he stood for in principle, and the electors should never forget Dr. Tolmie stood for the discredited Union Government.

Criticizes Despatches

Mr. Peirce spent some time criticizing the despatches in the newspapers dealing with the Old Country strikes, declaring they were attempting to discredit the working class by inculcating the idea in this country that the workers there are demanding unreasonably high wages when, as a matter of fact, the increased wages already granted were actually less than those before the war when the increased cost of living was considered.

"Some ask us if a labor representative will represent Victoria with dignity. I don't care a whoop whether he will or will not; what we workers want is a man who will represent the working classes," declared Mr. Peirce, amid applause. "Barnard will go to Ottawa to deliver the goods for the workers. His sympathies will be not alone for Victoria, but for the workers here, on the Mainland and elsewhere. He will represent those who produce," continued the speaker, who asked who among the Tolmie committee could be classed as producers.

Promises to Volunteers

Stating that he spoke wholly from the standpoint of the returned men and to returned men, Mr. McLernan, in a moderate but forceful speech, outlined some of the grievances which, he thought, the returned men possess against the Borden Government. He referred to the promises made by the Government when the call to arms was issued in Canada, that the Government would look after the dependents of those who went overseas in proper fashion, would hold as a sacred trust the care of those dependents whose bread-winner might fall in battle, would see to it that nothing was left undone to provide for the maimed and would take every step to adequately re-establish the returned soldier into civil life. But, he declared, the men on their return have found that while many of the statesmen-politicians who took good care to stay at home had amassed wealth, the dependents, instead of being properly cared for, had had to struggle along on a miserable pittance insufficient to purchase even the barest necessities. What had been done for the dependents of those who had made the great sacrifice? What adequate provision had been made for those who, maimed and wounded and in bad health, are granted totally inadequate pensions? While half-hearted efforts to place the returned men on the land had been made, no provision was made for those who did not desire to go on the land. The Government, Mr. McLernan asserted, had throughout treated the returned men with the utmost contempt. The defeat of the Government candidate at the by-election here would show the Government that the returned soldier is still a live issue. He declared the labor banner is the only logical one and only by a fusion of returned men and labor could results be secured.

Next Wednesday evening at the Crystal Theatre a special meeting for returned men only will bet held at which the labor candidate and a number of veterans will be the speakers. All returned men are invited to be present.

Mr. Bourassa's Denial

TORONTO, Oct. 3.—"Pure fiction" is the laconic reply of Le Devoir, Montreal, to a correspondence card received from The Toronto Daily Star yesterday, with a clipping of a dispatch which appeared in The Star on Monday stating that Ottawa had a report that Henri Bourassa was about to retire to a monastery, with the ultimate purpose of entering the priesthood.

Bank Declared Insolvent

FARGO, N.D., Oct. 3.—The Scandinavian-American Bank of Fargo, with liabilities aggregating more than $1,600,000, was today declared insolvent by the Banking Board of North Dakota. It was ordered closed and placed in the hands of a temporary receiver.

LOCAL HUNTERS BAG FINE TEN POINTER

The finest buck which has been brought into the city for many a long day is that which was bagged yesterday by Messrs. G. Scott and C. Baker, hunting on the Goldstream mountain. After the recent rain yesterday was an ideal day for deer hunting, and the lucky hunters did not have to go more than about half way up the mountain before they secured this fine buck. Getting him down the mountain side was another story, as all deer hunters will realize when they learn that this big fellow, which carried ten points, pulled the scale to 152 pounds, dressed.

MOTOR FATALITIES OCCUR IN VANCOUVER

VANCOUVER, Oct. 2.—Three men are held in custody, pending investigation as the result of the death here this morning of an 18-months-old child, run down and killed by a motor car. Mrs. James Reid, mother of the child, had stepped out to board a street car, carrying the baby in her arms, when they were hit by a heavy automobile alleged to have been travelling at a high rate of speed.

Mrs. Reid is not expected to recover. The men who are held are said to have been in the motor car.

Shortly afterwards, and on the same street, George Clark, an elderly visitor from Patagonia, Arisona, was struck and killed by a motor car, the driver of which is held by the police. In another motor car accident today a woman was knocked down and sustained a fractured leg.

The day's tragedies were completed by the death of six-year-old Dorothy Wentz, 615 Hamilton Street, who was burned to death in her bed when the room took fire from an overheated chimney.

VOCATIONAL SCHOOLS WILL OPEN SHORTLY

VANCOUVER, B. C., Oct. 2.—Two new schools are shortly to be opened in Vancouver under the direction of the vocational branch of the S. C. R. Space has been obtained in the Tower Building, where one of the schools is to be conducted under the name of the Tower Building Schools, while another institution, to be known as the Pender Street Schools, is to hold classes in the Hoffmeister Building on Pender Street.

The Tower Building School will conduct classes in sign painting and in the commercial arts.

Alterations to the Hoffmeister Building are being carried out, and it is proposed to open up classes in mechanics, French, polishing, dental mechanics and clothes cleaning, mending and pressing.

GUM DECAY CAUSES TOOTH DECAY

Healthy teeth need healthy gums to hug them. Else they will loosen in Pyorrhea. Tiny openings will come in the gums to act as the gateways of disease germs, which infect the joints or tonsils, or cause other ailments.

Forhan's prevents Pyorrhea, if used in time and used consistently. No mere toothpaste does. Are your gums tender, gums? Are they bleeding gums? If so, you are certain to have Pyorrhea (Riggs' Disease). Four out of five people who are over forty have it.

To you we earnestly recommend Forhan's. It preserves the gums which hold the teeth secure.

Brush your teeth with it. Forhan's cleans the teeth scientifically—keeps them white and clean.

If gum-shrinkage has already set in, start using Forhan's and consult a dentist immediately for special treatment.

SARANOFF HEADLINES NEW ORPHEUM BILL

Unique Violinist With Comedian and Winter Garden Girls Present Feature Number—Six Other Acts.

Saranoff with Billy Abbott and the Winter Garden Girls, will be the headline attraction on the Orpheum bill at the Royal Victoria tonight and tomorrow with a Saturday matinee. Saranoff, as a violinist, assisted, aided and abetted by five attractive young women, and another comedian in the person of Billy Abbott, comes pretty near being a feast. Billy Abbott is addicted to dropping his H's. In other words, he is an English comedian of the kind so popular in America. Herbert Timberg wrote this gay musical comedy. He has also written several full grown musical comedies, but none has contained so much music and comedy as this one.

Bryan Lee and Mary Cranston are playing a musical comedietta by William B. Friedlander called "A Britanny Romance." This is a charming little piece that just bubbles over with good humor and contains several melodies any one of which is good enough to be the song hit of a musical comedy.

Novel comedy and baffling cleverness are found in "Behind the Grand Stand," which is presented by Harry and Emma Sharrock. The little skit gives a fine idea of life of the Nomads, who make the country fairs their stamping ground. It is cleverly carried out and well worth seeing.

"Color Gems" is a posing act consisting of two men and four women who present what they call a study in color, light and form. It is said to be the par excellence posing act of today.

William Ebs is billed as vaudeville's newest offering. Mr. Ebs is a ventriloquist. The medium of travesty is the most remarkable figure that has ever been devised. This is an act that has a big surprise attached for the ordinary vaudeville fan.

Carl Emmy and his pets, which include half a dozen lively little terriers, form the nucleus of a neat comedy feature in a spectacular setting. The apparatus is elaborate and brilliant, being typical of the entire act.

The supremacy of the Japanese as equilibrists is generally admitted. The Kanazawa boys who appear on this bill are artists of undoubted merit, who at the same time have something that is decidedly unique—a Japanese comedian.

The pictures and orchestral numbers on this programme will round out two hours of splendid entertainment.

EXCELLENT CAST SUPPORTS "DOUG"

Marjory Daw Has Feminine Lead and Frank Campeau and Sam Sothern Have Important Roles

The supporting cast for Douglas Fairbanks' latest picture, "One of the Blood," which will be featured on the Variety screen next week, is a very happy choice.

The feminine lead is played by Marjory Daw, who has now appeared opposite Mr. Fairbanks in six of his best productions. When it is remembered that "Doug" uses rather heroic measures to rescue damsels from distress, it will be understood that it requires some experience to play opposite him. In his new picture Douglas Fairbanks performs numberless miraculous stunts for the sake of the girl and so splendidly has she carried out her part in the picture that stardom is shortly to be her reward.

Frank Campeau, probably the best known and most capably equipped of all screen and stage villains, has again been intrusted with a very important role, which he carries off with all the ability which has made him so well and favorably known.

Great interest will attach likewise to the appearance of Sam Sothern in the production. Mr. Sothern is a younger brother of the famous E. H. Sothern and this picture marks his first venture in the "movies." Mr. Sothern is known throughout England as one of the foremost actors on the speaking stage, and it is said that in this, his first screen appearance, he has delivered himself of a wonderful piece of character work.

"OH BABY" COMES TO ROYAL ON MONDAY

Marcus' Extravaganza Plays Here Two Nights Next Week—Is Show of Many Features

The Marcus show, which will be at the Royal Victoria for two nights next week, Monday and Tuesday, is like a small village in its equipment and accessories. The occupations of its inhabitants are diverse and numerous. In addition to the 50 entertainers and professional beauties who walk in the spotlight's glare there are a score or more on the payroll whom the audience never sees. There are beauty specialists to keep the Peach chorus in trim, manicurists, modistes, mechanics, wig-makers and above all three chaperons. The latter are most important. The beauties are as carefully watched over as though they were in a convent.

The tour this year includes Canada from Nova Scotia to British Columbia, while every state in the Union will have been visited with the exceptions of Tennessee and Kentucky. The itinerary calls for mileage nearly three times around the world.

VARIETY THEATRE "The Eleventh Commandment," the special Ralph Ince production made by Ralph Ince, and being shown at the Variety this week, has a distinguished cast.

Lucille Lee Stewart in the part of "Dora Chester" is the embodiment of sincerity, winsomeness and deep feeling, and the role fits her better than anything she has ever done for the screen. Miss Stewart is well known as the star in "His Wife's Good Name," "The Ninety and Nine," and other successes. Walter Miller, who plays the role of the adventurer, "Royce," has had an extended career with Metro, Fox and Art dramas. He is a "type" who never fails to register strongly in the role of a blase clubman or cynical man of the world.

Huntly Gordon, one of the best-liked young actors in photodrama, is a good-looking chap of the clean-cut, typically American leading man, and will be remembered for his many satisfying screen characterizations.

PANTAGES THEATRE Harry Bulger, Jr., co-star with Earle B. Mountain in the George Choos musical tabloid production, "Oh, Billy," which headlines the current Pantages bill, tells the following story on himself and his early activities in the theatrical profession: "I started in with a tent show, playing the most lurid melodramas ever staged," Mr. Bulger asserts, "and I was the 'heavy' of the company. After a lengthy tour of the south we played our home town—at least mine. I went home to visit the folks and received a great welcome. Everyone was glad to see me, although I'd only been away about a year. We had an old negro servant who had nursed me. I gave him a couple of passes to the show. He thanked me profusely and told me he would take his wife who was the family cook. We were playing one of the worst of the melos that evening, and I was doing the villain. After the show I went home, but before I could get upstairs to bed the old negro came to me: 'Marse Harry,' he said, 'I'se nursed yo' eveh sence yo-all was a kid. Refohm, boy, befo' yore mammy finds yo'all out.'"

COLUMBIA THEATRE The latest Metro picture in which Emmy Wehlen, the beautiful young star appears is called "The Amateur Adventuress," and was shown to a large and appreciative audience at the Columbia yesterday.

The play is one of swift and breezy action and gives Miss Wehlen a role of exceptional vivacity. She plays the part of Norma Wood, a girl who is tired of the humdrum existence she lives and determines to go out and see what the word Life means. How she manages to get the money and clothes necessary to launch her on this undertaking are among the many brisk and clever incidents which lead to the climax where Norma finds that the greatest adventure in life is love and happiness. The play shows the longings and rebellions of the feminine heart when it is kept in too narrow a groove and as Norma, Miss Wehlen does some of the best work of her career.

DOMINION THEATRE From the night that Jesse Smith, a sailor, hears of the supposed death of his bride, whom he finds to have been an adventuress who married him to win a wager made with her confederates, events follow in a rapid and fascinating series. Leaving the small Western town, he goes to a wilderness, to forget the tragedy of his matrimonial experience.

There, Jesse encounters Kate Trevor, an opera singer, who has brought her husband into the wilderness in the vain hope that the outdoor life may restore his failing health. But the wilderness which adds to the strength of the strong, overwhelms the weakling, and Trevor, striving to master his loneliness with strong drink, succumbs to his passions, his jealousies and weakness. Jesse finds hope of happiness in the love of a good woman, who like him, has suffered, but once again the shadows of the past obtrude themselves. The same croog who had been responsible for Jesse's early matrimonial misstep, stumbles upon his nest in the wilderness, and desiring Kate for himself, sends for Jesse's supposedly dead wife. From this point on exciting events culminate in big dramatic situations until the crook's dying confession finally clears the way for the future happiness of the lovers in the wilds.

ROMANO THEATRE The title of the new Pathe serial starring Ruth Roland, which will be introduced on the Romano screen today, has been changed from "The Long Arm" to "The Tiger's Trail."

The story is by Arthur B. Reeve and Charles Augustine Logue, and the scenes are being filmed at Glendale, California. Robert Ellis is the Director, and Miss Roland's supporting company includes George Larkin, Harry G. Moody, George Field, Frederick L. Kohler, Mark Strong and Easter Walters. "The Tiger's Trail" will follow Pearl White's serial, "The Lightning Raider," on the screens.

The final episode of the thrilling Western serial, "The Terror of the Range," featuring Betty Compson, will also be seen on the week-end programme.

Harry and Emma Sharrock ◊ ORPHEUM

Harry and Emma Sharrock, who will be seen at the Royal Victoria today and tomorrow in the laughable sketch, "Behind the Grandstand," one of the seven pleasing acts on the new Orpheum bill.

BRITISH COMPANY WILL MAKE FILMS

Largest Concern in World Organized to Manufacture Moving Pictures — Output for Five Years Already Sold.

By the formation of the Alliance Film Company, with a capital of £1,000,000, the largest company in the history of the British film industry is established. Its directors include Sir Walter de Freece, Charles F. Higham, M.P., Arthur C. Hunter, until recently technical manager of one of the largest American film corporations, A. E. Matthews, managing director of the British Actors' Film Company, and Walter Hutchinson, a well known publisher.

A consultative literary committee includes Sir Arthur Pinero, George R. Sims, Edward Knoblech and R. C. Carton. Three of America's chief producers have been engaged.

It is stated that the company is buying at Harrow Weald Park, near Hendon, fifty-four acres, where it will erect the largest film studios in the world, capable of producing six films simultaneously. The present programme is to produce twenty-six five-reel film plays and five super-productions every year. The output of the company is already sold for five years to the First National Exhibitors Circuit of America for the United States and Canada.

It is the biggest deal in films ever completed.

SERVICE AWAITS REPORT

Findings of Civil Service Commissioner Now Being Considered by Committee

The committee named by the Civil Service Association to confer with Civil Service Commissioner McInnes relative to the latter's report on his re-grading work was busy all day yesterday dealing with portions of the report.

It was expected that the commissioner's findings would have been ready sometime ago but for some reason not announced it was somewhat delayed. Once the report is completed it will go to the Cabinet, by whom its recommendations will be considered. The members of the civil service are impatient to see the report completed and its findings approved, for upon it depends the increases in salaries which will be granted in response to the repeated urgings of the members of the service.

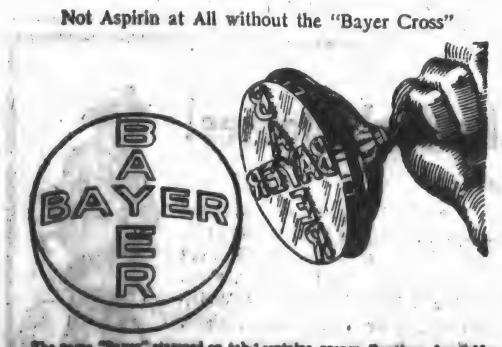
ONLY TABLETS MARKED 'BAYER" ARE ASPIRIN

Not Aspirin at All without the "Bayer Cross"



The name "Bayer" stamped on tablets positively identifies the only genuine Aspirin—the Aspirin prescribed by physicians for over nineteen years and now made in Canada.

Always buy an unbroken package of "Bayer Tablets of Aspirin" which contains proper directions for Colds, Headache, Toothache, Earache, Neuralgia, Lumbago, Rheumatism, Neuritis, Joint Pains, and Pain generally.

Handy tin boxes containing 12 tablets cost but a few cents. Druggists also sell larger "Bayer" packages.

Watch for only one Aspirin—"Bayer"—Then mind say "Bayer"

Aspirin is the trade-mark (registered in Canada) of Bayer Manufacture of Monoaceticacidester of Salicylicacid. While it is well known that Aspirin means Bayer-Manufacture, to combat the public against imitations, the Tablets of Bayer Company will be stamped with their general trade mark, the "Bayer Cross."

R.R. CONDUCTOR OUT WITH FACTS

Suffered From Indigestion and Rheumatism—Is in Fine Health Now.

One of the most noteworthy features in connection with the introduction of Tanlac in Canada has been the large number of railroad men who have been benefited by its use. Prominent departmental officials, conductors, engineers, office clerks, in fact men representing practically every branch of the service, have reported that they have used Tanlac with the most surprising and gratifying results.

One of the latest to testify is Charles McDonald, residing at 635 Stella Avenue, Winnipeg. Mr. McDonald has been conductor on the Canadian Pacific Railroad for a number of years and is popular with all who know him.

"Not in years," said Mr. McDonald, in a conversation recently, "have I enjoyed such good health or felt so well generally as I do since taking Tanlac. Before taking it I was suffering, and had been for several years, with stomach trouble, indigestion and rheumatism. I had no appetite at all and my stomach was in such a bad condition that I could not eat as much in a week as a child can eat in one day. I was told I had acute indigestion but no medicine gave me any relief. There was a terrible hurting in my stomach all the time and after what little I did manage to eat my chest and throat would fill up so with sour gas that I could hardly get a good breath, and my heart would palpitate so from the pressure of this gas that it felt like it would jump out of my body. I came home from work one day in such a bad condition that I really thought I was going to die. I suffered almost continuously with an awful pain across my kidneys and in my shoulders and left arm, and the pain in that arm was so bad sometimes I could hardly use it. I felt tired and worn-out all the time and had no life or energy.

"One day a friend put me on to Tanlac and I had not taken more than half of the first bottle until my appetite was so good that I could get up in the night and eat a hearty meal. I can now eat just anything I want, at any time, and never suffer a particle with gas, sour stomach, shortness of breath or palpitation. There's not a sign of pain in my back any more and the rheumatism has left my shoulders and arm entirely. I sleep like a rock at night and get up in the mornings feeling fine and brimful of new life and energy. I have picked up several pounds in weight and have never felt better in my life. I don't hesitate to recommend Tanlac now, for I believe I am telling the people about a medicine that will help them."

Tanlac is sold in Victoria by D. E. Campbell. (Advt.)

FRENCH BLUEBEARD CASE IS MYSTERIOUS

Thirteen Women He Is Alleged to Have Murdered Left No Clue for the Police to Work On.

Little headway has been made in the case of Landru, "the Gambais Bluebeard," as the French papers term him, who is charged by the police with being responsible for the disappearance of thirteen women to whom he had promised marriage.

The police have been investigating for four months, and four times a week Landru is taken from the prison of La Sante to the office of Judge Bonin, whose questions as to the fate of the thirteen women elicit from Landru evasive and at times very witty responses. They have got as far as sweetheart number three, and Landru's flippant replies have nearly driven the judge to nervous prostration.

The judge announced recently that he was going for a holiday. Landru immediately chipped in with the request that he, too, be permitted to take a vacation, as the regime of La Sante did not agree with him. Might he not be allowed to go to his villa at Gambais and hold himself at the disposition of the court? It was from Gambais villa that Landru's future spouses disappeared, never to be heard of since.

Judge Bonin was asking Landru how it was that his son, who assisted him in removing the furniture of three of his fiancees, did not make queries when moving that of Mrs. Guillin, the third removal of furniture in six months. "Did he not find it strange?" asked the judge.

My Children Obey

"My children obey my orders; they do not discuss them," responded Landru. "I have my misgivings as to the way you bring up your children, judge," he added, sententiously.

Landru contended that he had an order from Mrs. Guillin, drawn up in legal form, giving him full power of attorney to administer her property. "This document was not found among your papers, therefore, I must conclude that it never existed," said the judge.

"And as you and your police, with all the means at your command, are unable to find Mrs. Guillin, I must therefore, conclude that she never existed," countered Landru.

Not one vestige of the missing women has been found, and the charge of murder against Landru is growing weaker. There is no "corpus delicti." The villa at Gambois has been ransacked by the police and ponds in the vicinity of the villa have been drained, but it would appear that the women have vanished into thin air. To questions as to the probable whereabouts of the missing women, his relations with them prior to their disappearance, Landru invariably replies: "I am a man of the world; I cannot betray the confidence of women."

HAS RIBAND OF TWO RAINBOWS

New Award of Victory Medal and Theatres of War Where Services Are to Be Recognized.

A British Army Order states that the King has been pleased to recognise by the grant of a distinctive medal the services rendered by His Majesty's military forces in theatres of war since August 5, 1914. The medal, which will be designated "The Victory Medal," will be identical in design with that issued by the other Allied and Associated Powers for service in theatres of war, and will obviate the interchange of Allied commemorative war medals. It will be in bronze, and will be attached to the riband by a ring. No clasp will be issued with it.

The riband will be red in the centre with green and violet on each side, shaded to form the colors of two rainbows.

Provided the claims are approved by the competent military authorities, the medal will be granted to all officers, warrant officers, non-commissioned officers, and men of the British, Dominion, Colonial, and Indian forces, members of women formations who have been enrolled under a direct contract of service for service with His Majesty's Imperial forces, civil medical practitioners, nursing sisters, nurses, and others employed with military hospitals, who actually served on the establishment of a unit in a theatre of war and within the periods as defined below.

Theatres of War

For the purpose of this Army Order, "theatres of war" are defined as under—

1. Western European Theatre.—To include all operations in—

(a) France and Belgium, between midnight August 4-5, 1914, and midnight November 11-12, 1918.

(b) Italy, between midnight, April 17-18, 1917, and midnight, November 4-5, 1918.

2. Balkan Theatre.—To include all operations in—

(a) Greek Macedonia, Serbia, Bulgaria, and European Turkey, between midnight, October 4-5, 1915, and midnight, November 11-12, 1918.

(b) Gallipoli and Islands of Aegean Sea between midnight, April 24-25, 1915, and midnight, January 9-10, 1916.

3. Russian Theatre.—To include all operations in Russia since midnight, August 4-5, 1914.

4. Egyptian Theatre.—To include all operations—

(a) In Egypt between midnight, November 4-5, 1914, and midnight, March 18-19, 1916, but excluding operations for which the Sultan's Sudan medal has been awarded.

(b) Conducted by the Egyptian Expeditionary Force between midnight, March 18-19, 1916, and midnight, October 31-November 1, 1918, but excluding operations for which the Sultan's Sudan medal has been awarded.

5. African Theatre.—To include all operations as set forth below, but excluding local military operations against native tribes or rebels for which the African G.S. medal is awarded—

(a) In British, German and Portuguese East Africa, Nyasaland and Northern Rhodesia, between midnight, August 19-29, 1914, and midnight, November 25-26, 1918.

(b) In German South-West Africa and on the adjacent borders of the Union of South Africa between midnight August 19-20, 1914, and midnight, July 9-10, 1915.

(c) In Kamerun and on Eastern and Northern Frontiers of Nigeria, between midnight, August 23-24, 1914, and midnight, February 18-19, 1916.

(d) In Nigeria, between midnight, January 4-5, 1917, and midnight, May 15-16, 1917.

(e) In Togoland, between midnight, August 6-7, 1914, and midnight, August 26-27, 1914.

6. Asiatic Theatre.—To include all operations.

(a) In Hedjaz, between midnight, November 4-5, 1914, and midnight, January 13-14, 1919.

(b) In Mesopotamia, from midnight, November 5-6, 1914.

(c) In Persia and in the Persian Gulf, from midnight, November 5-6, 1914.

(d) In Trans-Caspia, from midnight, July 18-19, 1918.

(e) At Shaik Said (South-West Arabia), on November 10 and 11, 1914; and at Perim, on June 14 and 15, 1915.

(f) Conducted by the Aden Field Force, between midnight, July 2-3, 1915, and midnight, January 13-14, 1919.

(g) In the Frontier regions of India, carried out by forces which actually took the field between August 5, 1914, and October 31, 1918. The specified military operations, together with the qualifying areas and the opening and closing dates thereof, will be published in a subsequent Army Order.

(h) At Tsing-Tau, between midnight, September 22-23, 1914, and midnight, November, 7-8, 1914.

7. Australasian Theatre.—To include all operations against the German Pacific Dependencies as follows—

(a) New Britain, from midnight, September 10-11, 1914, to midnight, September 21-22, 1914.

(b) New Ireland, from midnight, September 15-16, 1914, to midnight, October 18-19, 1914.

(c) Kaiser Wilhelm-Land, on September 24, 1914.

(d) Admiralty Islands, on November 21, 1914.

(e) Nauru, on November 6, 1914.

(f) German Samoa, on August 29, 1914.

SCOTCH TWEEDS

From the Land of the Heather

WHEN we say that these are genuine Scotch Tweeds—imported by Fit-Reform directly from Scotland—haven't we said all that can be said about the sturdiest and—to many men—the most likable Suits and Overcoats that can be made?

And these new Tweeds have gained added charm from being shaped into Suits and Overcoats by the master hands of the Fit-Reform tailors.

If you have a preference for Tweeds, either in Suits or Overcoats, let us show you the novelties we have imported in genuine Scotch Tweeds. 339

NEW METHOD OF REVIVING DROWNED

Surgeon Claims Ability to Resuscitate Bodies Which Have Been Six Hours Under Water.

Dr. Fischer, of Vienna, declares that he is able to revive human life after it has been submerged in water up to six hours; and that hundreds of lives are sacrificed every year by clinging to the old methods.

Dr. Fischer says that it is impossible for a drop of water to enter the lungs of a person who enters the water alive. This is contradictory to the time-honored belief that the lungs of a drowned person are filled with water. Dr. Fischer says "The water strikes the larynx and causes a spasm which closes the lungs and prevents the entrance of water for a period of nine days, until relaxation commences. Drowning, so called, is merely suspended animation, and not death."

"To restore animation," he says, "I proceed first to thoroughly warm the body, which has been thoroughly chilled by submersion. This is accomplished with hot water in which the apparently drowned person is immersed, for from 20 to 30 minutes. Following this immersion in the hot water, which must be as hot as can be borne by the hand, the old and ordinary methods of resuscitation are resorted to, viz., artificial respiration, or the use of the pulmotor."

Dr. Fischer claims that he has never failed in this method of resuscitation, which has been applied in dozens of cases. By this process it is possible to save the lives of persons apparently drowned after attempts have been made to restore them by the use of artificial respiration, so that, if necessary, the old method of resuscitation may first be adopted, followed by immersion in hot water and artificial respiration, or the use of the pulmotor.

Belmont Avenue Methodist Church Bible Class Make Presentation to Rev. R. Wilkinson

The Berean Bible class of the Belmont Avenue Methodist Church held its monthly business meeting on Wednesday night at the Methodist Parsonage, Gladstone Avenue. As it was the birthday of the pastor, Mr. E. E. Hardwick, on behalf of the members of the class, presented the Rev. R. Wilkinson with a monogrammed set of hair brushes.

The class outlined the work for the Winter and set an objective of raising $50 for the Church funds. It is hoped to secure the services of Mr. A. H. Maynard for an illustrated lecture on "Old Victoria" in the near future.

President Jack Chapman and Secretary F. Emery look forward to a highly successful year as there has been much enthusiastic co-operation among the members in the class work.

HOLDS PREMIER MAY SIGN DOCUMENTS

His Signature to Indictment Bills Is Valid While Acting as Attorney-General, Judge Rules.

Although Premier Oliver is not a barrister, his signature on bills of indictment and other legal documents while acting as Attorney-General is valid in the courts, Mr. Justice Macdonald ruled yesterday, when the point was raised by Mr. Frank Higgins, K.C., counsel for William Emery in a manslaughter case.

Mr. Higgins held that the indictment was invalid and the whole proceedings null and void because the Premier was not a barrister and his signature could therefore not be recognized. Attorney-General J. W. de B. Farris is at present absent from the city, and the Premier is acting for him.

Mr. Justice Macdonald quoted a Manitoba Appeal Court decision, which he said covered the case in question. It was obvious that the man who signed the indictment need not be a member of the bar, he said.

"Unless there were amendments made for every province," he said, "it would mean that there would always have to be in the executive council two members of the bar, because only a member of the executive could act when the Attorney-General is away. I don't suppose that the members of the legal profession would object to that being made a condition for membership in the Cabinet."

EMERY FOUND NOT GUILTY OF CHARGE

Jury Announces Verdict After Hour's Deliberation—Manslaughter Trial Lasted Practically All Day.

A verdict of "not guilty" was delivered yesterday in the case of William Emery, charged with manslaughter. The jury was out one hour. The trial lasted practically the whole of the day.

Emery was charged with having exercised lack of caution when his motor car, driven by himself, was smashed between two Willows street cars in front of the Jubilee Hospital on Peace Day, July 19. The accident resulted in the death of his niece, Gladys Coulter, and the injury of several others.

Emery gave little outward sign of emotion during the proceedings, but when the verdict was announced he was almost overcome. He was defended by Mr. Frank Higgins, K.C., who called only two witnesses—Edwin Wang, the young man who rode with Emery in the front seat of the car, and Emery himself.

Mr. J. S. Brandon prosecuted for the Crown. Mr. Justice Macdonald presided.

Regulations Not Clear

That there was no direct prohibition in statute or bylaw to prevent a motor car passing an open vehicle on the right, as had been done in the case of the accident, and that it would take a lawyer to find out that street cars were considered differently, was the contention of Mr. Higgins in his closing plea to the jury. He said that Emery did the only logical thing that there was to do when he drove his motor past the City-bound street car and attempted to pass into the open road ahead between the approaching cars. He said that Emery had a right to assume that the motorman on the outbound car would slow down.

Mr. Higgins held that, at most, Emery was only guilty of an error of judgment or an innocent mistake. He had broken a traffic regulation unwittingly; that was all. "He wasn't drunk. He wasn't driving furiously," Mr. Higgins declared. "He wasn't even taking chances out of the ordinary. He simply made a mistake that everyone is liable to make at one time or another. The motorman of the street car didn't give him a nop-portunity to keep within the law. Why isn't the tramway company prosecuted?"

Mr. Brandon maintained that the B. C. Electric Railway had nothing to do with the case. Emery had passed a street car on the right, and on that account was guilty of negligence, a breach of the statute, and "the rankest kind of carelessness." He had taken no precaution whatsoever, and there were some blunders, Mr. Brandon held, that were worse than crimes. "No matter what other considerations there are, this man was primarily wrong," he declared. "He did something that he should not have done without lawful excuse, and killed someone. When a man is so grossly negligent, he commits a crime."

Motorman Not Concerned

Mr. Justice Macdonald, in his charge to the jury, made it clear that, so far as the case against the accused was concerned, it made no difference whether the motorman was to blame or not. A man driving a motor car was required by law to drive on the left, yet Emery had ignored that regulation, and it would be deplorable if a law-breaker were exempted from punishment because he pleaded that he did not know the law. It would also be deplorable, he said, if an attempt were made to shift the responsibility on another individual absent from the court and unavailable. He said he did not quite appreciate where the error of judgment suggestion came in.

The jury retired at 5 o'clock.

In the morning considerable evidence was heard respecting the speed at which the out-bound Willows car was traveling immediately before the accident. B. Soper, the motorman, testified that the speed was between ten and fifteen miles an hour, and that he tried to slow down by reversing. After some discussion, he admitted that if his car had been traveling the regulation speed the collision would have been avoided.

The estimate of the conductor of the car was between fifteen and twenty miles an hour.

Dr. Wasson testified that Miss Coulter's death had been caused by concussion of the brain as a result of a fracture at the base of the skull.

Matter of Seconds

William C. Gilling, who was driving a car similar to Emery's a short distance behind when the accident occurred, said Emery's car was traveling about 25 miles an hour when he was trying to pass the Willows car. It was all a matter of seconds, he said. Had the out-bound car not ripped the rim off one of the rear tires of Emery's car, the latter would probably have escaped.

Gilling believed that the out-bound street car was making twenty-five miles an hour, and that the motorman seemed to ignore Emery's presence altogether.

Ernest Emery, son of the accused, and E. W. Harrington, another witness of the accident, also testified.

Edwin Wang, who was in the front seat with Emery at the time of the accident, said he saw a motor car traveling neck and neck with the out-bound street car, and for that reason Emery could not have done otherwise than try to rush between the street cars as he had. He did not know whether Emery had seen this motor.

William Emery said he came here in 1883, and that he had bought his car fifteen months ago for his wife and invalid son, who was practically incurable. The party was returning from a picnic at Cadboro Bay, and he said he was hurrying home because his son was anxious to get indoors. He said that he thought it was proper for motors to street cars on the right. He had repeatedly done it himself, and had seen others doing it. He maintained that the street car, and not himself, was to blame for the collision.

IMMENSE BEDS OF SALT DISCOVERED

The Salts and Potash Co., Ltd., of Kitchener, Ont., have recently discovered immense deposits of astracanite, in Muskiki Lake, near Maskakee Springs, Sask., situated on the Prince Albert branch of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway. This deposit is what is known as a double salt produced by nature, and is composed of sodium, and magnesium. To the trade this commodity is known as crude Glauber's salt, or salt cake sulphate, and latest surveys indicate there are deposits to the extent of 9,000,000 tons. The crude material is at present being shipped to Kitchener, Ont., to be refined, but an evaporating plant is being constructed at Maskakee Springs and a railway siding put in to develop the business on the ground, and a new company is being formed to operate same, known as the Maskakee Products, Ltd. The by-products will include Glauber's salt that is extensively used in paper making; Epsom salts, bromide, common salt, magnesia, etc., much of which articles in pre-war days were imported from Germany, also from the United States. Negotiations at present are under way for supplying the large paper mills on the British Columbia Coast. A deposit of pigment has also been found in the same vicinity, which may be used for the manufacture of paints.

MAYOR INVITED BY PRINCE TO LUNCHEON

His Worship Receives Telegraphed Invitation to Function His Royal Highness Is Giving at Winnipeg.

Mayor Porter yesterday received an invitation from His Royal Highness, the Prince of Wales, to attend a luncheon which the Prince is giving at the Royal Alexandra Hotel, Winnipeg, on Saturday, the 11th inst.

The invitation, which came by telegram, was as follows: "I am directed by His Royal Highness, the Prince of Wales, to invite you to a luncheon which he is giving at the Royal Alexandra Hotel, Winnipeg, at 1.45 p.m., on Saturday, October 11. A reply addressed to the Equerry-in-waiting, Alexandra Hotel, Winnipeg, is requested."

Mayor Porter stated last evening that he was unable to state immediately whether he could accept the invitation of His Royal Highness, but he intimated that he should very much like to do so.

CAMOSUN CHAPTER HOLDS MEETING

The regular monthly meeting of Camosun Chapter was held on Wednesday in the I.O.D.E. rooms, the regent, Mrs. Andrew Wright, presiding.

A letter of greeting was read from the national president. Mrs. Quinn, of the Seaforth Chapter, Vancouver, was introduced and enrolled as a member; Mrs. J. E. Grice and Miss Ellen Taylor were also presented and enrolled.

It was reported that Mrs. Rylands had been presented with a bar pin before leaving for England. A list of the six soldiers' graves to be cared for by this chapter was read, and a committee of twelve members appointed to carry on this work.

Miss Lawson gave a short report re the Girls' Club, and a donation of $10 was made; a like amount being donated to the Nurses' Club in London.

It was decided to present a picture of the Prince of Wales in naval uniform to the High School. After discussion it was decided to hold a bridge party in the near future in aid of the funds of the chapter.

A standing vote of sympathy was passed to the Hon. Robert Beaven in the loss of his wife, an honored member of the chapter.

Mrs. David Miller gave a most interesting report of the national council meeting held in Montreal.

METCHOSIN FAIR OPENED BY PREMIER

Fine Showing Is Made by the Farmers and Ladies—Metchosin Hall En Fete for Annual Exhibition.

Metchosin's Annual Fair and Exhibition was opened yesterday afternoon by the Hon. John Oliver, Premier of British Columbia, the fine display which had been gathered together at the Metchosin Hall drawing high praise from the Premier.

The hall was well decorated for the occasion, and the various stalls and exhibits made a colorful scene, which brought great credit to the members of the Farmers' and Women's Institutes, who together prepared the collection.

The Premier gave an interesting address on farming and its problems, and claimed that the influence which the Fall fairs had in improving the quantity and quality of British Columbia's farm produce was not appreciated by the average citizen, and it was such exhibits as that organized by the Metchosin people which showed how really great had been the strides made in agriculture by the farming communities.

Mr. R. H. Pooley, M.P.P., also spoke in praise of the showing made, referring especially to the fine display arranged by the Metchosin ladies.

There was a large attendance throughout the afternoon, and in the evening an excellent concert and entertainment attracted nearly everyone in the district to the hall.

British Lines Resume Service to Germany

Sailings of Number of Well Known Shipping Firms Again Commence Now That Ban Has Been Lifted—Dutch Vessels Handling Part of Trade

British steamship lines are preparing to resume their services to and from German ports.

Doubts expressed as to whether British seamen would be willing to enter Hamburg, Bremen and other German ports again after the ruthless submarine warfare of the Germans have been dispelled by announcements reaching New York from the headquarters of the Peninsular & Oriental, the General Steam Navigation Company, the British India Steam Navigation Company and the Well Line have made arrangements to resume sailings during the present month. It is understood that other British companies will return to the old territory and, while the number of sailings will be appreciably smaller than that of pre-war times, the service will be adequate for the present requirements.

Before the war the General Steam Navigation directed an excellent service to Hamburg, with three to five steamers from the Thames and two steamers from Harwich every week. For the present it is proposed to run one vessel a week from London to Hamburg. The first ship will be the Falcon, which is scheduled to sail within the next few days.

Germany and Orient

The British lines, comprising the Peninsular & Oriental Steam Navigation Company, the British India Steam Navigation Company, Ltd., and the Well Line, will start loading in Hamburg and Bremen in connection with their services to India. The P. & O. and the British India Companies will serve both sides of India and the Persian Gulf, the Well Line serving Colombo, Madras and Calcutta. Antwerp is already reached by these companies, and this connection will be sustained and augmented as is deemed desirable.

The services to Germany are the last to be resumed by the General Steam Navigation Company. Prior to the war it maintained very full European shipping facilities, but during the period of hostilities its service suffered heavily, being cut down to less than half. A great number of the ships in its fleet were lost by the action of the enemy. Just now the enterprise of the firm is being concentrated upon bringing back the European services to normal. Already the ports of Great Britain, France, Italy, Spain, Scandinavia, Belgium and Holland are served with regular sailings, although the number is much smaller than formerly.

To Replace German Ships

The British feel that their ships will have to take care of demands from Germany for tonnage, inasmuch as the German mercantile fleet exists no longer. While the Dutch lines have stepped in and are essaying to take care of business that formerly was handled by the North German Lloyd and the Hamburg-American Line, the British Oriental Line feel that this trade must come to them. The Japanese lines expect to get some of this tonnage to the Indies.

So far none of the British lines has announced a sailing from German ports to the United States. It is understood that they regard the American companies will have preference in these channels and are not desirous of competing with them just now.

American freighters returning recently from Germany report that there are virtually no return cargoes to be procured, and see no immediate increase owing to the unsettled conditions, the absence of raw materials and the industrial unrest.

The ban on imports and exports from and to Germany was not lifted by Great Britain until September 1, and this accounts for the delay in resuming the services.

American Battleship Ran Official Trial Trip From Puget Sound to California—Best Gait Twenty-Two Knots.

En route from Puget Sound to Santa Barbara, on its official trial trip, the U. S. S. Idaho, the latest superdreadnought to be added to the Pacific fleet, passed Golden Gate, San Francisco, at 8 a.m. Sept. 30. The Idaho is undergoing its official final acceptance trip under the direction of the Pacific Coast Board of Inspection and Survey.

During a speed trial of four hours the Idaho attained a maximum speed of twenty-two knots, and averaged 21 9-20 knots for the four-hour period. These figures are said to have been the highest ever attained by a United States battleship.

The Idaho made the run from Cape Flattery to San Francisco, a distance of 673 miles, in 32 hours and 2 minutes.

BARON KONDO
President of the Nippon Yusen Kaisha, Japan's largest ship operators.

KONDO TO VISIT VANCOUVER PORT

Mainland City Thought to Have Chance of Getting Japanese Line — Head of N. Y. K. to Investigate.

SEATTLE, Oct. 2.—Possibilities of even further development of Seattle's facilities to accommodate at least three or four more great trans-Pacific fleets will be investigated by Baron R. Kondo and his party of high officials of the Nippon Yusen Kaisha, who will arrive in Seattle October 6 and be the guests of Samuel Hill until they sail October 12 for Japan.

The members of the party are returning from Paris, where they advised the Japanese treaty commissioners. Baron Kondo is the head of the Nippon Yusen Kaisha and is Japan's foremost shipping man as well as one of the greatest financiers of the Island Empire.

During their stay in Seattle members of the party will occupy Mr. Hill's residence and Mr. Hill will accompany them on a trip to Vancouver, where the party will go to investigate the possibilities of further harbor development in that port.

Baron Kondo not only proposes a through investigatin of Seattle port possibilities with a view of centering all his own fleet's operations on the Pacific Coast in Seattle, but also to determine whether it is possible for three other big Japanese steamship companies to make Seattle their American port.

To accommodate the fleets that Baron Kondo says should be operated out of some American port on the Pacific Coast additional docks and rail road terminals will have to be provided, he believes.

Whether this could be done to best advantage by the Port of Seattle or by some private corporation is a question that Baron Kondo and his party will investigate. And they also will wish to know whether there is a disposition at Seattle to provide increased port facilities in event the Japanese commerce of the Pacific is diverted to this port.

Vancouver's Overtures

Vancouver is said to have made attractive offers to the Japanese steamship lines and assurances from high government sources are declared to have been given that if the British Columbia port is favored every encouragement will be given there for the development of trade with the Orient.

It is an open secret that Baron Kondo and his associates prefer an American port on Puget Sound. It is semi-officially admitted that the treatment accorded in San Francisco and other California cities is distasteful to the big Japanese steamship operators and they would prefer to centre their operations in the North.

Because of difficulties of operation on the Columbia and Willamette Rivers there is no serious thought given to Portland in the plans to change the base of operations.

The situation as it now is understood is that there very likely will be a choice made between Seattle and Vancouver. In favor of the latter port the Japanese officials have been told that they not only would be welcomed and port facilities provided, but also that Vancouver is served by two Canadian and two American railroads. Special stress is laid on the fact that both the Great Northern and Northern Pacific enter Vancover, the argument being that these two lines could drain territory in the United States to serve a steamship line operating out of Vancouver.

Prospects for Future

In the past, Baron Kondo has been well satisfied with the treatment ships of his line have received at Seattle, and in correspondence and private talks he has manifested a spirit of friendship toward this city. However, the future attitude of Seattle is said to be an important factor in determining whether much greater shipping activities of the big Japanese steamship lines are to be centered here.

When Baron Kondo and party were on their way to Paris they stopped in Seattle in January of this year, going into harbor development plans to some extent. When he started for Paris, Baron Kondo left behind him a letter briefly outlining his plans and expressing himself as likely to be satisfied. However, he wished further information and intimated that the scope of his operations was far greater than he had stated in talks here. Later, in Paris, Baron Kondo agreed to return home by way of Seattle, confer with business men here, view the harbor again and finally sail for home in one of his own ships.

Mr. R. H. Thomson has made a survey of port facilities and has prepared a preliminary report on possibilities for further terminal and dock construction which will be submitted to Baron Kondo when he arrives next week. This report is not complete, it is understood, but as Mr. Thomson has studied the possibility of railroad terminal improvements exhaustively it is understood he will be prepared to show that plenty of railroad facilities can be made available. The dock improvements, of course, would have to follow suggestions Baron Kondo might make when he examines the preliminary report.

MARINES LANDED TO AVERT CLASH

Admiral Knapp Reports to Washington on Trau Incident—Italian Admiral Asked for American Intervention.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2.—Intervention by the American naval forces at Trau prevented bloodshed "which would perhaps have resulted in a state of actual war between Italy and Jugo-Slavia," according to a report from Admiral Knapp, commanding American naval forces in European waters, transmitted to the Senate today by Secretary Daniels.

American sailors were not landed, Admiral Knapp said, until after American and Italian officers, who had been sent to Trau, had induced the Italian raiders to withdraw after they had surprised and captured the small Serbian garrison. One Italian officer and three men were left behind, and the American bluejackets were sent ashore to protect them and police the town until Serbian troops could arrive, the Admiral said.

The Americans acted, Admiral Knapp continued, at the request of the Italian admiral in command of the Dalmatian coast, and the force was withdrawn immediately after the Serbians arrived.

Meantime the commander of the Italian raiders was ordered to trial by court-martial by the Italian admiral.

KYUQUOT GETS RECORD WHALE

For three days the whaling tender Gray, which arrived here yesterday at noon, was delayed at Kyuquot whaling station as the men there were busy handling three huge sperm whales, one of which is the largest ever caught at the West Coast station since it commenced operations in 1907. The Gray brought down 700 tons of fertilizer picked up at the different whaling stations on the British Columbia coast. This will be taken to Puget Sound. The exact size of the whale has not been learned by the local offices of the Consolidated Whaling Corporation. The season ends about the middle of October.

CANCEL SAILINGS ON ACCOUNT OF STRIKE

Shipping Board Boats Start for Britain While Railway Trouble On—To Go on Other Routes.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2.—Shipping in American ports, so far as it concerns shipping board vessels with cargoes consigned to ports of the United Kingdom, was at a standstill last night because of the strike of British railway workers.

Suspension of the sailings of all vessels under its control to ports of England, Scotland, Ireland and Wales was announced by the shipping board through the making public of an order issued late Saturday night when the railroad strike became a certainty.

The shipping board, it was explained, ordered sailings suspended following receipt of information from its representatives in England as to conditions in the ports there and after the issuance of the British order prohibiting the furnishing of bunker coal to any ships other than outbound British vessels.

While shipping board vessels allocated to the United Kingdom trade constitute only about one-half of the American tonnage engaged in that trade, the congestion of ports resulting from the strike and the British bunker coal order are expected to stop eventually, should the strike continue, the sailings of all American craft to the British isles.

Sailings of British Ships

Sailings of British ships from American ports to ports of the United Kingdom have not been suspended, but the shipping board's order would indicate that such a step was being contemplated, even on the eve of the strike.

Asistant Director of Operations Taylor, of the shipping board, in announcing the suspension order, said that the ships being held in port will be allocated to other trade as rapidly as possible. Those now loaded or nearly loaded will be distributed as soon as they are ready to countries other than the United Kingdom.

The shipping board, on the basis of Saturday's report, has 55 of its vessels engaged in the United Kingdom trade in United States ports, with a total tonnage of 356,004 deadweight tons. At that time there were 84 vessels, with a total of 429,000 deadweight tons on the high seas, bound for such ports, and 87 ships with 569,000 deadweight tons in British harbors.

Many of the shipping board vessels now en route and in British harbors are oil burners, and are, therefore, independent of British bunkers, but the others may be forced to lie in the harbors unless fuel can be obtained for the return trip.

56,000 Highly Sensitive Electrical Mines to Be Cleared Away by Americans—Many Sensitive Feelers on Each.

The American navy is having a tremendous task in sweeping the North Sea of the 56,000 electrical and highly sensitive mines they planted there. Explosion by electricity is the method now employed. Some were sunk very deep—as deep as a submarine could go.

Each mine was fitted with antennae suspended by floats so that the huge field was not only charged with mines, but had also become a mass of sensitive feelers to explode them. Should a submarine come in contact with an antennae the mine at a short distance away at the end of the antennae would explode.

The problem has been to explode the mines far enough away from the sweepers to insure safety and also to forestall the danger of the explosion of a mine at a safe distance causing another close to the ship going off.

The vessels in sweeping use special electric cables several hundred yards in length. Operation of a system of electrical appliances prevents the mines from exploding if the ship strikes an antennae, but when the electric wire touches the antennae it blows up the mines at a safe distance from the boat.

COOLIES WEARING VARIED UNIFORMS

VANCOUVER, Oct. 2.—The most complete display of the uniforms of the various belligerents of the Great War was to be seen on the C.P.R. docks this morning when 2,100 Chinese coolies passed through to be tucked away in the maw of the Empress of Russia, bound on the last leg of their long journey home from the war zone.

NOTICE TO MARINERS

The Department of Marine advises mariners that the red and black can buoy marking Walbran Rock at the southern entrance of Lama Passage, B.C., has drifted out of position. This buoy will be replaced at the first opportunity.

LAND REGISTRY ACT
Section 24

In the matter of part (5.97 acres) of Section 3, Range 3, Saanich District:

Proof having been filed in my office of the loss of Certificate of Title No. 2476-I to the above mentioned lands in the name of John Haggerty, and bearing date the 5th day of January, 1911, I hereby give notice of my intention at the expiration of one calendar month from the first publication hereof to issue a fresh Certificate of Title in lieu of such lost Certificate.

Any person having any information with reference to such lost Certificate of Title is requested to communicate with the undersigned.

Dated at the Land Registry Office, Victoria, British Columbia, this 10th day of September, 1919.

FRANK J. STACPOOLE,
Registrar-General of Titles.

DECEASED

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that all creditors and other persons having any claims or demands against the estate of Arthur Wellesley Vowell, late of Victoria, B. C., deceased, who died on the 28th day of September, 1918, and whose will was proved in the Supreme Court of British Columbia on the 11th day of March, 1919, by Arthur Williams Jones and Arthur Philip Luxton, the executors therein named are hereby required to send particulars in writing of their claims or demands (verified by statutory declaration) to the undersigned Solicitors for the said executors on or before the 25th day of September, 1919, after which date the said Executors will proceed to distribute the assets of the said Testator amongst the parties entitled thereto having regard only to the claims and demands of which they shall then have had notice and the said Executors will not be liable for the assets of the said Testator or any part thereof so distributed to any person or persons of whose claims or demands they shall not then have had notice.

Dated this 11th day of August, 1919.

POOLEY, LUXTON & POOLEY,
Chancery Chambers, Victoria, B.C., Solicitors for the said Executors.

TAKE NOTICE that the investigation under the Inquiries Act, Chap. 104 Rev. Stats., Canada, relative to herring and salmon fishing in Fisheries District No. 3 (exclusive of Barclay Sound) will be resumed at the Courthouse, Duncan, on Friday, the 3rd October next, at 11 a.m., and at the Courthouse, Nanaimo, at 2 p.m., on the 10th October next.

Dated September 23rd, 1919.

D. M. EBERTS,
Commissioner.

TORONTO, Oct. 2.—When the rear truck of the third car of a string of heavily loaded freight train jumped the points of switch just below the C. P. R. and C. N. R. Don station, Robert Morris, the conductor of the train, was fatally crushed, while three freight cars were thrown across the main track, completely tying up traffic.

GAINS PREDOMINATE ON STOCK EXCHANGE

Contest Waged by Bulls and Bears Results in Moderate Victory for Former—U. S. Steel Shows Strength.

NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—Trading in today's active stock market resolved itself most of the time into a contest between the bulls and bears, gains predominating at the fairly steady close.

Many movements continued to reflect the shifting of loans due to heavy October requirements, call loans opening at 6 per cent, and holding at that rate until the final hour, when belated borrowers were forced to pay as much as 12 per cent.

Crucible Steel made further forfeiture of its recent sensational advance, dropping slightly more than 12 points at its worst, and closing at a loss of about 9 points. U.S. Steel resisted occasional pressure, declining only a fraction and rallying later, with affiliated shares, also equipments, motors, oils and shippings. Features of these divisions included Baldwin Locomotive, General Motors and Atlantic Gulf at gains of 2 to 6 points. Tobaccos were uncertain.

Sales amounted to 1,200,000 shares.

The bond market was irregular, Liberty and foreign issues shading slightly. Total sales, $12,885,000. Old United States bonds unchanged on call.

MEETING SUPPORTS NEW SCHOOL BY-LAW

Need of New School at Willows Endorsed at Ratepayers' Meeting Held in Oak Bay High School.

In taking the chair at last night's mass meeting in the Oak Bay High School, called to discuss the reasons underlying the School Trustees request for a new school at the Willows, Judge Lampman struck a popular chord when he said "Everyone here seems to favor the by-law which will be put to the vote on Saturday, and all that is required to assure the passing of it will be the turning out of a strong vote."

There being no opponents of the by-law present to address the meeting, Secretary Hewett presented a Trustee's letter to the ratepayers, which was unanimously endorsed before the meeting turned to the business of arranging the details for getting out the vote.

The School Trustees' letter is as follows:

"The Board of School Trustees of Oak Bay have requested the Municipal Council to place before the ratepayers a by-law to raise the sum of $65,000 for the purpose of erecting a modern school building in the Willows District. The cost of floating this loan, with the discount upon the debentures, will bring the amount required to $68,000.

"The total contract price, at the lowest figures submitted, will be, roundly, $94,000, but the Provincial Government will contribute, as a grant towards the project, the sum of $30,000.

"Parents whose children have been attending the Willows school are well aware of the disadvantages, not to say unhealthy condition, under which they have been pursuing their studies, but conditions have now gone beyond even this stage and there is no longer room to adequately care for those enrolled, to say nothing of new pupils who will present themselves for admittance at Christmas and Easter. There are now fifteen pupils ready for promotion to a room where there are only three vacant seats, and no possible readjustment of the classes can obviate this condition.

"We now appeal to the ratepayers to generously support this by-law, which will be voted on at the High School Building, Oak Bay Avenue, on Saturday, October the 4th.

"Those parents whose children are attending Monterey School are very much concerned in the passage of this by-law. If it is not passed, there can be no rearrangement of the school boundaries and the congestion, which is already being experienced in some of the roms in the Monterey School, will become more pronounced.

"It may also be said that the residents of the southern portion of the Municipality have an obligaion to provide as good a school for the children in the north as they themselves enjoy in the Monterey Avenue School; and those residents living to the north of Oak Bay Avenue are interested, as their children will, when the new school boundaries are made, have to attend at the Willows School.

"The life of the by-law is twenty years, and the interest and sinking fund will increase the taxes to the extent of 1 1-5 mills per year, or $1.20 for every $1,000 of investment. On the grounds of health, the progress of the children of the district and the reputation of Oak Bay as possessing some of the best schools in the Province, the passage of the by-law should be the concern of everyone interested in the district."

NO CANDIDATE TO BE BROUGHT FORWARD

Liberals Will Support Labor Candidate in Coming By-Election—Resolution Passed at Meeting

At a meeting o fthe Victoria Liberal Association held in the committee rooms last evening it was decided not to put a candidate in the field at the coming by-election to oppose Dr. Tolmie, but to support the Labor candidate. This was the suggestion brought forward from the executive and adopted by the meeting.

At the close of the meeting an effort was made to carry a resolution in connection with the drydock and to ask the Government for a definite statement as to when it would be started, but the resolution not only failed to find a seconder but created considerable adverse discussion.

President Ivel, who attended the Liberal convention at Ottawa, gave a report of the proceedings, and dealt briefly with the various resolutions passed at that convention.

Mr. H. C. Hall, M.P., reported on the work of the general Provincial convention held in Vancouver.

A resolution was adopted expressing a vote of confidence in Mr. MacKenzie King.

The time used is Pacific Standard, for the 120th Meridian west. It is counted from 0 to 24 hours from midnight to midnight. The figures for height serve to distinguish high water from low water. Where blanks occur in the tables, the tide rises or falls continuously during two successive tidal periods without turning.

The height is in feet and tenths of a foot, above the average level of lower low water.

Esquimalt—To find the depth of water on the sill of the Drydock at any tide, add 19.0 feet to the height of high water as above given.

LARGE BEET SUGAR OUTPUT EXPECTED

Forecast for 1919-20 Crop is 850,200 Tons, According to Beet Sugar Publicity Estimates

The following forecast of the Beet Sugar output in the United States appeared in a recent issue of The Daily Commercial News, published in San Francisco, and is of considerable interest during the present general shortage of the product:

"On the basis of crop conditions reported as of the end of August, the Bureau of Beet Sugar Publicity estimates the beet sugar production of the United States for the season of 1919-20 at 17,004,000 bags, or 850,200 ordinary tons. This is the first forecast of the sugar outturn of the coming crop to be made since those based on acreage planted as reported at the end of June.

"The present forecast assumes a production larger than that of 1918-19 by approximately 87,500 tons, or about 11.5 per cent on an acreage, as reported on September 1 by the United States Department of Agriculture, of 792,000 acres, or 15 per cent larger than on the corresponding date in 1918. This indicates a yield per acre averaging below that of last season's crop.

"Should the 1919 crop come up to this estimate, however, the actual sugar outturn will be the largest ever reached in the United States, with the exception of that of the 1915-16 season, when production totalled 874,220 tons from a harvested area of 665,308 acres."

TRENCH NIGHT TO WELCOME SIR ARTHUR

General Currie Will Be Guest of Honor of British Campaigners on Monday Evening Next at Armories.

A trench night—replete with the songs the troops sang in France and Flanders in the days when they straffed the Hun—is the general plan of the reception and dinner being arranged under the auspices of the British Campaigners Association in honor of the home-coming of General Sir Arthur W. Currie, G.C.M.G., K.C.B., for Monday evening next at 7:30 o'clock at the armories on Bay Street.

An office has been opened for the sale of tickets in one of the offices of the Belmont Building, facing on Humboldt Street—the same office used by the Prince of Wales Ball committee—where members of the ticket committee are in attendance. The tables have been numbered and lettered and each ticket holder is allotted a seat on securing his ticket.

Ladies and gentlemen will attend, and the dress will be informal—soldiers attending in service uniform. It is anticipated that the function will be largely attended, as this will be the first opportunity that the people of his home town will have a chance to hear General Currie tell of the gallant deeds of the Canadian Corps which won such a splendid record in France and Flanders under his command. It is not intended to have many speeches, chiefly the address of welcome to the former Corps Commander by Major the Rev. W. Barton, who went overseas with the first contingent from Victoria and the reply by the guest.

The band of the G.W.V.A. will play during the evening and will lead in the programme of trench songs. The words are being published in the Campaigners Listening Post, a trench newspaper being published by the British Campaigners for the occasion.

The menu will also be a unique souvenir, being in the form of a rum jar and decorated with cartoons of things known to the soldier.

The armories are now being decorated for the occasion.

TIMBER WOLVES MEET

103rd Battalion Club Hold Third Assembly—A Re-Unions Planned

That the association would carry on was decided last night at a meeting of the 103rd Battalion, Timber Wolves Club, held at the Y.M.C.A. rooms. The club now has a membership of some 200, and is looking forward to a season of social activity this Winter.

It was decided that monthly meetings would be arranged to take place on or about the 2nd of the month. Last night was the third assembly of the club and some thiry members attended. In the absence of the President, Mr. Bolt took the chair, Mr. Dexter acting as secretary. The financial report showed a credit of some $75 in hand.

The majority of the members being absent from town during the present months there was some question of abandoning meeting in the meantime. It was finally decided to let the matter stand as arranged. The main objects of the association are to promote social fellowship among the old-timers of the 103rd Battalion, and to keep a watchful eye on the dependents of those who fell in the conflict.

One member of the battalion caused some amusement by his optimistic remarks, and his discourse on a variety of topics. Prohibition, gratuities and voting at the next elections were all treated of the speaker, who emphasized the fact that the battalion was "all there."

After the routine business of the association was concluded the party adjourned for the evening, an informal smoker concluding the proceedings.

ST. CATHARINES, Ont., Oct. 2.—Harry D. Sims, of Niagara Falls, Ont., who was prosecuted a week ago by the Dominion Finance Department for having failed to make his income tax returns for 1917, to the Dominion Government, was fined $610 today. He has yet to make out the returns and pay the tax.

WANT GOVERNMENT TO LEAVE SHIPS ALONE

British Shipowners Object to Authorities Keeping Rates Lower Than Vessels of Other Countries Are Getting.

British shipowners believe that America, having completed plans to do business with all parts of the world by means of American ships, the time has come when British shipowners are allowed to conduct their business as seems best to them. They see no need of committees, controllers, advisers and dispensers of licences, now that the war is over. Their grievance is largely based on the fact that American ships can get a larger freight rate than the British boats in the same trades. British shipping is being directed from the River Plate at 62s 6d per ton, while the foreigner has no difficulty in securing 200s for the same voyage. To quote an exchange:

"The United States has built ships to make money and to carry American goods to all parts of the world to make more money. This country wants money, much more than our cousins across the Atlantic do, yet on the pretence of bringing in foodstuffs cheaply our bureaucrats are choking up one of our principal sources of revenue. Even Sir Leo Chiozza Money has stated that higher freights are necessary to save the country from bankruptcy and he is absolutely right this time, although we do not often find ourselves in agreement with him. As matters stand at present, the foreign shipowners get all the plums and British shipowners have to bring over from the Plate, Australia and America foodstuffs at a very low rate of freight, supposedly for the benefit of the working classes of Great Britain, France and Italy. At least that is how it is put by the apologists for the system, but the fact of the matter is that food is extremely dear in all countries named and elsewhere, owing to causes which are too well known to all who are well acquainted with the real position of affairs. The policy is, in short, nothing more nor less than a sop to labor, shipowners being the scapegoats of the wasteful politicians.

"France, of course, is short of shipping, but that is no reason why British shipowners should be called upon to carry wheat from the River Plate at absurdly low rates for her benefit, while French ships are free to operate elsewhere. Let all shipping be quite free, and let rates be fixed by the law of supply and demand. The rates now in vogue for 'directed' voyages would probably rise at first, but on the other hand the freights charged by foreign owners would most certainly be very heavily shaded, and thus in the course of time the real market value of all tonnage would be arrived at. This has got to be done sooner or later, and there is really no need to postpone the day any longer; unless it is thought to be imperative that American, Norwegian, Japanese and Dutch shipowners should secure all the profits there are to be made in the shipping trade."

CAPT. ROBERTSON NOW AT NANAIMO

Capt. G. E. L. Robertson, pilotage superintendent for the Dominion, left yesterday afternoon for Nanaimo, where he will meet the pilots and Board of Trade in an endeavor to gain further information concerning pilotage matters. He has been here since Saturday last.

PRINCE ENROLLS WITH NAVY LEAGUE

While in New Westminster the Prince applied at the Booth of the Navy League in the exhibition grounds for a membership card. He signed it and duly enrolled a member of the New Westminster branch.

The Provincial executive of the League held a meeting in the Industrial Hall of the exhibition at which the following members from Victoria were present: H. T. Ravenhill, A. C. Flumerfelt, H. J. Davis and H. F. Helmsing. They returned to the city yesterday morning. The executive completed arrangements for the launching of a campaign on October 21. Sir Charles Hibbert Tupper was elected chairman of the campaign committee, with H. T. Ravenhill vice-chairman. One nominee from each branch in the province will constitute the personnel of the committee.

B. C. MUNICIPALITIES CONVENTION TUESDAY

VANCOUVER, Oct. 2.—The Duke of Devonshire, Governor-General of Canada, may open the sixteenth annual convention of the Union of B. C. Municipalities in the horticultural hall, North Vancouver, on Tuesday next, according to advices received by Mayor Vance on Wednesday. His Excellency may arrive in time for the opening, and arrangements are being made to receive the King's representative in a fitting manner.

There is expected to be an unusually large attendance of delegates at the convention. The order of business, which has now been approved, will open with the appointment of a credentials committee, resolution committee and auditors.

The opening hours of the session will be occupied with various items of new business, the report of the resolutions committee, general discussions, and the hearing of an address by Industrial Commissioner D. B. Martyn, D.S.O., on the "Industrial Development of British Columbia."

Y. M. C. A. WORKERS ON WAY TO SIBERIA

VANCOUVER, Oct. 2.—After spending from a year to three years in war work in France and Germany, and not being satisfied to settle down to ordinary United States life again, a party of nine American Y.M.C.A. workers are in this city on their way from New York to Vladivostok to enter "Y" work in Siberia. They sail on the Empress of Russia.

Two ladies are in the party, Misses Ewing and Roberts, who have been entertaining the troops in France and Germany for a long time. They will do similar work in Siberia.

Germany's Finances

BERLIN, Oct. 2.—Mathias Erzberger, Minister of Finance, told the national assembly this afternoon the only country capable of financing a big loan was the United States, and negotiations at this source were impossible until the treaty of peace was ratified. Herr Erzbergez said the Government was exerting every influence in an effort to halt the downward tendency of the mark, and announced the appropriation of 3,500,000,000 marks for the purpose of keeping down food prices.

"ADVERTISING IS TO BUSINESS WHAT STEAM IS TO MACHINERY"

Advertising

—is a direct index to the character of your business—
Therefore it should be dignified.
—is, in effect, a personally signed statement of your capabilities—
Consequently it should be conservative.
—is a challenge to your competitors, and as such—
Must claim nothing you cannot fulfil.
—is a perpetual link between you and your customer—
Therefore, must inspire confidence.
—is a direct appeal for patronage and must therefore be—
A compelling incentive to purchase.
—is in continual competition with rival advertisements and—
Should attract and arrest attention.

The Perfect Advertisement

—appeals by its appearance and convinces through its wording; avoids overstatement and exaggeration; is dignified rather than sensational and refraining from technicalities is a straightforward statement of facts couched in plain, simple but convincing language.
